GOV. MAYTORENA ATTACKS CARRANZA LEADER'S FORCES

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 25. — Gov. Maytorena attacked the forces of General Benjamin Hill, the Carranza commander, today at Santa Barbara. Hill sent special trains to Cananea for reinforcements.

Nothing was known here as to the outcome of the fight, but several of Hill's men, including Lieutenant-Colonel Arnulfo Gomez and Captain Abad, were sent to Cananea this afternoon seriously wounded.

DELAY REMOVAL OF U. S. TROOPS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Withdrawal of American forces from Vera Cruz now may be delayed indefinitely, because State Department officials have no means of communicating with Mexico City to continue diplomatic correspondence concerning the transfer of Vera Cruz custom house.

The following formal statement was issued today by the war department:

"Numerous inquiries were made here and of General Funston with respect to the date of the departure of the American troops from Vera Cruz. In view of the matters, which must be first settled, no date can at present be fixed, but in no event can the departure take place within the next ten days, and General Funston was so advised."

"With reference to remitting the fines of the German vessels, Secretary Garrison said in an opinion 'that it has not been disclosed that the United States government has any intention of utilizing its occupation of the port of Vera Cruz to obtain financial benefit to itself and therefore it does not desire to insist on the collection of their fines and thereupon remits them.'"

STILL HOPE FOR PEACE.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 25.—Prominent men here believe there still is a chance to make peace between Carranza and Villa before the breach becomes irreparable. Meanwhile the general public here does not seem to have been informed of the controversy.

TO CONFER TUESDAY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—It is understood President Wilson and Secretary Garrison have not yet considered the possible effect of the Villa revolt on the American evacuation and as Garrison plans to leave Washington today for the week-end, it is probable the question will not be taken up until the cabinet meeting Tuesday. As there are so many other questions to be settled officials take the view that there is no occasion for a hasty decision concerning the troops.

An American officer on the Arizona frontier, in a report today, described the manner of Villa's proclamation of independence.

1100 ENGLISH OFFICERS LOST; LEADERS SCARCE

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The military correspondent of the Times writes today as follows:

"An army cannot be improvised at a moment's notice and instances in which improvisation has been attempted in the past have been lamentable failures. Experienced officers are dubious concerning the armies which England is now raising at home, because they do not think they will be ready to fight in the field for eighteen months, and then only if they have been trained by good professional officers, the numbers of which are limited and are being constantly decreased by losses in action."

"The question of officers is a serious one. An examination of our casualty lists show we have lost already over 1100 officers, in killed, wounded or missing. This is two out of every five among those at the front."

"More officers is the constant cry from the front, and several hundred have been sent, but obviously this cannot be kept up forever, and each officer sent is one less instructor for the new troops. We must not allow ourselves to become megalomaniacs and place in the field recruits which are unfit to defend the honor of our arms."

Tragic Death Ends Long Service in Oakland Station

"My Dearest Sue: I don't want to do this, sweetheart, but I am losing my mind and rather than to be a burden to you, I'm going to do it. May God bless you, dearest, is my last wish. Yours forever, 'Alf.'"

Sending his child bride out of the house with a message to his office, Alf J. Ripley Jr., cashier of the Oakland Santa Fe station at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue, composed his will wrote a farewell note to his wife, and ended his life by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver this morning, shortly after 9 o'clock.

The suicide occurred in the apartments which the couple occupied at 389 Thirtieth street. The shot was not heard by other tenants of the building, probably because Ripley, who had returned to his bed, muffled the explosion under the covers. Not until Mrs. Ripley returned, half an hour after she had gone forth, was the deed known.

MIND GOING, HE FEARED.

The only motive for the suicide was far given by Ripley himself in his farewell to his wife. He feared insanity, he wrote. His home life was happy, according to the neighbors. He had been married for but four months, going east on leave of absence from the company, and bringing back his bride from Massachusetts, his former state, where his sister, an only relative, lives.

Then the bride and groom rented their apartment on Thirtieth street, and Ripley returned to his

REDSKINS' PROMISE TO REMAIN NEUTRAL APPRECIATED BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A letter conveying the appreciation of President Wilson to the Rocky Boy Indians, a roving band in Montana, for their offer to remain "neutral" during the European war, as a result of Secretary Lane's efforts to secure some land for them, was on its way to the Indians today from the secretary. Lane had written President Wilson advising him of the neutrality promise of the Indians, and the President in his reply to the secretary asking that his appreciation be conveyed to the tribe, wrote that there was "something very touching" in the offer of the Indians.

BRITISH TAKE GERMAN PORT

LONDON, Sept. 25, 3:25 p. m.—The official press bureau this afternoon issued the following statement:

"The admiralty announces that a telegram has been received from Vice-Admiral Sir George Fatch, stating that the town and the harbor of Friedrich Wilhelm, the seat of government of Kaiser Wilhelm (the name applied to the German portion of New Guinea), has been occupied by an Australian force without opposition."

The armed forces of the enemy appear to have been concentrated at Herbertshohe, where they were annihilated.

"The British flag has been hoisted at Friedrich Wilhelm and a garrison has been established there."

Switzerland Bars German Army Corps

ROME, Sept. 25, via London, 2 a. m.—The Giornale d'Italia publishes a report from Basel that Switzerland has refused a request from the Germans for permission to send three army corps across Swiss territory.

WAR SUMMARY

The thirteenth day of the great battle of the Yser, to the northwest of Paris, find the Franco-British and German armies still fighting desperately, with the Germans fiercely retarding the gradual advance of the allies on General von Klock's flank.

The French army is now entrenched in a position between the river Somme and the river Oise, in a position approximately 50 miles north of Paris.

On the eastern end of the battle line in France the Germans are reported to be making a determined assault on the Verdun positions. One report of the fighting there places the German casualties at 10,000 dead and 15,000 wounded.

The German army headquarters in its latest official statement regarding the situation in France confined itself to stating that there have been some minor engagements, but that nothing of importance has transpired.

The sharpening of the censorship over news passing through the hands of the British authorities, as announced last night, will be maintained today. A considerable amount of unofficial reports, comment and special dispatches from the war zone is not being transmitted from London.

In the eastern theater the Russian pursuit of the Austro-German forces in Galicia continues. A Russian official statement says the Galician fortified positions of Czestochowa and Pustyn, together with all the Austrian artillery, have been captured.

Following the capture of Jaroslau the Russian flag has moved forward twelve miles to the west of that position and now lies over the town of Przemyśl and Nantut. The Russians claim to be steadily closing in on Cracow.

A Berlin official statement says there is no news from the eastern war arena.

Zeppelin airships have extended their operations to the Belgian coast-side resort of Ostend. Three bombs dropped from a dirigible caused considerable damage to buildings and created a panic among the inhabitants.

Emperor William is reported to be suffering from a severe cold, caught in a violent rainstorm while observing the German soldiers in the trenches before Verdun.

The Bern government is reported to have declined Germany's request for permission to send her forces through Switzerland. Italy, it is said, is prepared to defend Switzerland's neutrality should Germany forcibly attempt to cross the frontier.

A French official announcement states that the Germans are again bombarding the historic cathedral at Rheims.

DISEASE IS SCOURGING SOLDIERS

Cholera, Rain and Snow Are Enemies of Armies

Siege Guns Stick in the Mud; Lull in Battle Area

Accompanying the reports of bad weather comes the ominous news of the presence of disease. Hungary has accounted an outbreak of cholera among her troops, and while it is denied officially this same scourge is said to have attacked the Serbian troops. General epidemics of milder diseases may be expected in the western battle area, where the troops on both sides, drenched by rain, are lying in flooded trenches.

Operations in Alsace-Lorraine are said to have come to a complete stop on account of snow storms. Rain and floods are reported also from the scene of the Galician operations and probably account for cessation of the Russian attack on the retreating Austrians.

Storm conditions will interfere greatly with motor transports and troops taking the offensive may be greatly handicapped by inability to bring up their artillery.

SIEGE GUNS IN MUD.

Several of the great German siege guns probably destined for use against the fortifications of Paris have fallen into the hands of the enemy, having become stuck in the mud when the Germans began their retirement from the Marne. The French are now digging the artillery out, but the same cause which led to their abandonment

STAFF OFFICERS MUFFLE LIGHTS OF MOTOR CARS

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Daily News correspondent in France telegraphs as follows:

"Nightly the Germans take the landscape with searchlights and shrapnel while the French and British, working in darkness and mystery, muffle even the headlights of the staff officers' motor cars."

"Recently a wireless message from German reinforcements, coming through Belgium, was intercepted by the British. It showed a new German army approaching, accompanied by long marches and long food, which feared it would be cut off by the French hurrying along from the west."

GERMANY REPORTS 1000 MEN LOST

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Telegraphing from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Reuters Telegram Company says the thirty-first German casualty list, carrying a total of about 1000 men, killed, wounded and missing, has been received. It includes the names of twenty-three officers of one regiment who were killed in five days' fighting.

RESUME SHELLING OF CATHEDRAL

LONDON, Sept. 25, 12:30 p. m.—It was announced officially in Bordeaux this afternoon that the Germans last night resumed bombarding the Rheims cathedral.

ACTION ON LEFT WING VIOLENT

PARIS, Sept. 25, 3:08 p. m.—The foreign official communication was given out in Paris this afternoon:

"First, on our left wing there has begun a general action of great violence between those detachments of our forces that are operating between the river Somme and the river Oise and the army corps which the enemy has grouped in the region around Tergnier at St. Quentin."

These army corps have come, some from the center of the enemy's line and others from Lorraine and the Vosges. These last-named corps were transported by rail to Cambrai by way of Liege and Valenciennes. To the north of the river Aisne, as far as Berry-Au-Bac, there has been no change of importance.

"Second, on the center we have made progress to the east of Rheims in the direction of Berry and Moronvilliers."

GERMANS ON MEUSE HEIGHTS.

"Farther to the east, as far as the Argonne region, the situation shows no change. To the east of the Argonne the enemy has not been able to move out of Varennes. On the right bank of the river Meuse the enemy succeeded in getting footing on the heights of the Meuse, in the region of the Promontory of Hattin Chatel, and, forced in the direction of St. Mihiel, he bombarded the forts of Panoches and of Camp Des Romains. To offset this, to the south of Verdun, we remain masters of the heights of the Meuse and our troops, moving out of Toul, advanced until they reached the region of Beaumont."

"Third, on our right wing, Lorraine and the Vosges, we have

CARNEGIE BLAMES TEUTON MILITARY CASTE FOR WAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Andrew Carnegie, advocate of international peace, reached New York today aboard the steamer Mauretania with a new version of how the war in Europe was started.

"I'll tell you how the war started," said Carnegie. "The Kaiser was on a holiday on his yacht in the North Sea. While he was away he received a telegram asking him to return to Berlin. When he returned the ushier had already been done."

"The Kaiser himself is a marvelous man, possessed of wonderful ingenuity. He has done more good for Germany than any other man before him. He has built up a great foreign commerce and a marvelous internal business. The Kaiser himself is a peace-loving man."

"The trouble was started by the German military caste that rules the country. They are responsible for the war."

"The Kaiser gathered around him a group of men who, unknown to him, acted in concert, and in his absence took the action that could not be altered."

"As for my own country, I don't know how to thank God that I live in a brotherhood of forty-eight nations—forty-eight nations in one union."

"America's duty to the world, Mr. Carnegie added, is to point the way to an everlasting peace. 'What we want' is an international court to stop war. No real friend of lasting peace wants to stop the war now. That would be a short-sighted policy and would be but an armed truce."

GERMANS RESIST ALLIES' ADVANCE.

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 25, 7:10 a. m.—According to information reaching the French capital this morning, the Germans are continuing their desperate resistance against the advance of the allies in the north. This advance was first on Roye, twenty-six miles to the east of Amiens, and then on Peronne, twenty miles north of Roye. It was only by a continuous raking artillery fire and hard fighting that the French and British troops were able to continue their advance against the vigorous attacks of the enemy. The left wing of the allies now occupies positions between the river Oise and the river Somme, traversed by the Germans during their advance in the direction of Paris.

From this fact is argued here by military observers the Germans will be obliged to concentrate a great force in order to protect their right wing, the outflanking of which, Paris believes, would mean a decisive victory for the allies.

FIGHT FROM IMPROVISED FORTS.

In this fighting, which is in large measure from improvised forts, the allies have advanced not only on the left, where their maneuvers apparently were successful, but also at other points which were strongly fortified, such as Berry-Au-Bac, in the direction of Craonne. Judging from the reports coming to Paris, the Germans appear to be sacrificing masses of men in the hope of gaining a quick advantage.

So strong are some of the positions, on each side, that Paris believes a long and steady siege at some point is not improbable. The allies appear to be prepared for this as well as for any other developments.

"MINOR ENGAGEMENTS," SAYS BERLIN.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Sept. 25, via London, 11:40 a. m.—The following official announcement, dated September 24th, has been given out at army headquarters:
"In the western theater of the war today there have been some minor engagements, but nothing of importance has transpired. There is no news from Belgium or the eastern war scene."

10,000 Dead, 15,000 Wounded in Battle at Verdun, Report

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 25, 6:35 a. m.—The "Matin" publishes a dispatch from Basel, Switzerland, credited to the "Lancet," which says that Germans in the attack on Verdun have killed 10,000 and wounded 15,000. The report is based on a statement by a German officer who was captured at Verdun.

Preparations by Germans to Renew the Siege of Verdun Reported

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25, 1:12 p. m.—From Peronne on the west to Lorraine on the east, along a battle line that would take a pedestrian a fortnight to cover, there came to London during the night a report that the Germans were making preparations to renew the siege of Verdun. The report is based on a statement by a German officer who was captured at Verdun.

DROP BOMBS INTO CITY OF OSTEND

Wreckage in Market Place the Result of Rirship's Visit.

By Associated Press.
OSTEND, via London, Sept. 25.—A Zeppelin airship, coming from the direction of Thourout (12 miles to the west of Ostend), dropped three bombs yesterday, one of them striking the Avenue P. de Smet de Nayer bridge, on the outskirts of the town; another fell in the harbor and another on the premises of a wholesale fish dealer in the fish market, partly wrecking the building. The explosion here made a great cavity in the ground and badly damaged all surrounding houses, extinguishing street lamps, destroyed electric wires and created a panic. The Zeppelin returned in the direction of Thourout, 12 miles northeast of Ostend.

The Avenue P. de Smet de Nayer bridge crosses the Canal de Derivation at the northeast boundary of the famous Park Marie Henriette in Ostend. The fish market in Ostend is near the railway station, and on Wednesday and Fridays is crowded with purchasers. All sales are by auction to the highest bidder.

From Ostend as the crow flies it is only about twenty miles across the North Sea and the Strait of Dover to the English coast.

TAKE FORTIFIED POSITION.
By Associated Press.
PETROGRAD, Sept. 25.—An official announcement from Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces in the field, says:
"On the southwest front the Russian troops have taken possession of the fortified position of Cyschky and Foulstun, which covered Khyroff and other positions in the Rodynno region (between Jaroslavl and Pzemska), taking all the enemy's artillery. The Pzemska garrison has evacuated Bourgade and Medyka and has been repulsed in the eastern end, toward the line of forts."

RUSSIANS TAKE PRZEWORSK.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Post says that the Russians have captured Przeworsk, eight miles from Jaroslavl, and Lanout, twelve miles further west. "Probably by now," the correspondent continues, "they have also taken Rzeszow, another important strategic point ten miles to the westward, or thirty from Jaroslavl."

CALL OFFICERS.
Virtually all the newspapers carry every day advertisements calling on all non-commissioned officers to rejoin the colors and aid in the training of recruits.

SADOVA BATTLE SEVEN DAYS LONG

Russians Suffer Heavy Losses Before Finding Range.

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 25, 10:40 a. m.—Telegraphing from Petrograd, the correspondent of the Havas News Agency says that among the engagements preceding the capture of Jaroslavl by the Russians, that at Sadova on the Vistula river, was the most important. This fight lasted seven days without interruption.

The Austrians were entrenched on the summits of hills arising from a broad and unsheltered plain. The Russians, however, were able to reach this open plain, against a raking machine gun fire. Their losses were tremendous and they were repulsed many times, until finally their guns found the range, then their charge was successful.

FIGHTING DESPERATE.
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 25, 3:30 a. m.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Nish says:
"Desperate battles were fought September 22 along the front of Zvonik-Losmitza and the front of Mitrovica-Snabats, the situation being favorable to the Serbians."

On the front of the Save river the enemy opened artillery and infantry fire. On the island of Sava and at Zaborado the enemy attempted attacks in the direction of Mala Ada and Trigallia Ada, which were repulsed.

On the nights of September 21-22 the enemy began an artillery fire on the city of Belgrade, the fortress and the wharves of the Save, but their efforts to cross the Danube near Belgrade and Vershera failed.

BATTLE STOPS TRAFFIC.
By Associated Press.
COPENHAGEN, via London, Sept. 25, 4:03 a. m.—It is learned here from apparently good sources that the German government on Thursday stopped all traffic of civil passengers in East Prussia, owing to the fact that a great battle was in progress and the Russian army was advancing from that direction toward Breslau. Telephonic communication from Breslau to Berlin, it is stated, was stopped in order to prevent information of the serious situation being sent.

The King of Sweden sent a kind letter on Thursday to a Russian baron, the editor of the newspaper "Jougenia," at Kiev, at present in Copenhagen, who recently sent long telegrams to President Wilson, the various rulers of Europe and to the peace convention at The Hague, pleading for help for the Russian Republic.

GERMANS ARE ACCUSED OF ATROCITIES

French Ambassador Presents Documents to the United States.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The French ambassador, Jules J. Jusserand, made public today the summary of the documents submitted by various officials accusing the German soldiers of a systematic campaign of atrocities. The documents, which were placed in the hands of Acting Secretary Lansing of the state department by the ambassador, were also delivered to all signatories of The Hague convention.

When the documents were delivered it was explained that the French government did not take the step with a view of demanding any action on the part of the United States, but merely to report to this country as a signatory of The Hague treaty evidence of how the treaty was being carried out.

The statement made public by the French ambassador is as follows:
"By order of the government of the French Republic a series of official reports as to the way in which the present war is being carried on in the French territory by German troops have been communicated to the powers who signed The Hague convention, the United States being one of them."

CHARGE SYSTEMATIC SLAYING.
These documents, ten in number, show that the destructions and assassinations which have taken place have been systematic and performed in accordance with orders from the officers and not as the result of an accidental lack of discipline.

The facts quoted are given only as samples and not as complete enumeration; they cover, moreover, only the first three weeks after the beginning of hostilities (two weeks of actual warfare) and worse deeds have been committed since that time.

Such as they are they show, among other things, that wounded soldiers have been finished in large numbers by shots fired right against the face of the wounded; that Pont-A-Mousson, an open and undefended town, was bombarded; the hospital, which is an historical building, having especially suffered; a number of villages, among them Parux and Affeville, have been methodically destroyed, houses by houses; soldiers being, as it seems, provided with implements enabling them to perform that kind of work with a minimum of trouble; nurses bearing conspicuously the badge of the Red Cross have been assassinated; numerous inhabitants have been put to death without pretext or provocation (among whom, at Badonviller, the wife of the mayor), in some cases, notably at Billy, on the 10th of August, the German troops, when they marched out of the place to charge the French troops, have taken women and children with them.

FRENCH EXPECTS BATTLE TO CONTINUE FOR DAYS

'Present Engagement Approximates Siege Warfare,' Says Field Marshal

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Sept. 25.—The official press bureau last night issued a report from Field Marshal Sir French's headquarters, supplementing the dispatch of September 22 on the British operations in France. The text follows:
"The enemy is still maintaining itself along the whole front and in order to do so is throwing into the fight detachments composed of units from very different formations, the active army, reserve and Landwehr as is shown by the uniforms of the prisoners recently captured."

"Our progress, although slow on account of the strength of the defensive positions against which we are pressing, has in certain directions been continuous, but the present battle may well last for some days more before a decision is reached, since it now approximates somewhat to siege warfare."

"The German army, coupled with their great strength in heavy artillery, leads to the supposition that they are not to be easily repulsed, but the fact that they were all repulsed with loss to the enemy, but the casualties incurred by us were by no means light."

FEEL VICTORIOUS.
"The nature of the general situation after the operations of the 18th, 19th and 20th cannot better be summarized than as expressed recently by a neighboring French commander to his corps: 'Having repulsed several very violent counter attacks made by the enemy, we have a feeling that we have been victorious.'"

"So far as the British are concerned, the course of the battle during these three days can be described in a few words. During Friday, 18th, artillery fire was kept up almost continuously, but during daylight, at night the German counter attacks certain portions of our line, supporting the advance of their infantry, by a heavy bombardment. But the strokes were not delivered with great vigor and ceased about 2 o'clock in the morning. The German aircraft gun of the third army corps succeeded in bringing down a German aeroplane."

On Saturday the 19th, the bombardment was resumed by the Germans at an early hour and continued intermittently under reply from our own guns. Some of their infantry advanced from cover, apparently with the intention of attacking the British line. A limited effort was made, but it was repulsed. Otherwise, the day was quiet, except for the activity of the artillery, which kept up a regular routine rather than an event."

"Another hostile aeroplane was brought down by our guns. Our state succeeded in dropping several bombs over the German line. One incendiary bomb falling with considerable effect on a transport of food and munitions. A limited store of the enemy's munition of war also was found, not far from the Albion, ten wagon loads of live shells and two wagons of coal. A number of traces were discovered of large quantities of stores having been burned—all tending to show that as far as the Allies the German retreatment was hurried."

"There was a strong wind during the day accompanied by a driving rain. This militated against the aerial reconnaissance."

BREAK IN CLOUDS.
"On Sunday the 20th nothing of importance occurred until the afternoon when there was a break in the clouds and intervals of sunshine which was hardly less welcome to the Allies than the soaking rains. The Germans took advantage of this brief spell of fine weather to make several attacks against different portions of our line. The fact that the occupants of the trenches were under the impression that they heard a military band in the enemy's lines just before the attack developed, and how much that the German infantry started their advance with bands playing."

"The offensive against one or two points was repulsed with great success. The brunt of the resistance naturally has fallen upon the infantry. The German troops have been drenched to the skin for some days, and their trenches have been deep in mud and water. The incessant night alarms and the almost continuous bombardment to which they have been subjected, they have on every occasion been ready for the enemy's infantry when the latter attempted to assault, and they have beaten them back with great loss. Indeed, the slight positive relief after long, trying hours of inaction under such fire."

Indeed, the slight positive relief after long, trying hours of inaction under such fire."

On Saturday the 19th, the bombardment was resumed by the Germans at an early hour and continued intermittently under reply from our own guns. Some of their infantry advanced from cover, apparently with the intention of attacking the British line. A limited effort was made, but it was repulsed. Otherwise, the day was quiet, except for the activity of the artillery, which kept up a regular routine rather than an event."

"Another hostile aeroplane was brought down by our guns. Our state succeeded in dropping several bombs over the German line. One incendiary bomb falling with considerable effect on a transport of food and munitions. A limited store of the enemy's munition of war also was found, not far from the Albion, ten wagon loads of live shells and two wagons of coal. A number of traces were discovered of large quantities of stores having been burned—all tending to show that as far as the Allies the German retreatment was hurried."

"There was a strong wind during the day accompanied by a driving rain. This militated against the aerial reconnaissance."

BREAK IN CLOUDS.
"On Sunday the 20th nothing of importance occurred until the afternoon when there was a break in the clouds and intervals of sunshine which was hardly less welcome to the Allies than the soaking rains. The Germans took advantage of this brief spell of fine weather to make several attacks against different portions of our line. The fact that the occupants of the trenches were under the impression that they heard a military band in the enemy's lines just before the attack developed, and how much that the German infantry started their advance with bands playing."

"The offensive against one or two points was repulsed with great success. The brunt of the resistance naturally has fallen upon the infantry. The German troops have been drenched to the skin for some days, and their trenches have been deep in mud and water. The incessant night alarms and the almost continuous bombardment to which they have been subjected, they have on every occasion been ready for the enemy's infantry when the latter attempted to assault, and they have beaten them back with great loss. Indeed, the slight positive relief after long, trying hours of inaction under such fire."

VILLA MASSING TROOPS FOR MARCH ON CAPITAL WHILE PEACE IS BEGGED

lines were repaired and the situation relieved of its unrest.

Report from American consuls in Sonora said no fighting was imminent, though Governor Maytorena has circulated proclamations throughout the state declaring it independent of Carranza.

There has, however, been no response to telegrams sent by industrial Mexicans to Villa, begging him to make peace.

Discussion in official circles indicates a belief that Villa's action might afford a reason for continued American occupation of Vera Cruz.

A GOVERNOR APPEALS. Antonio Villareal, governor of the state of Nuevo Leon, who has just left here for Monterrey, telegraphed to Villa before starting as follows:

"Let us not drown the ideals of the revolution in human blood. Let us not irreparably divide the country through discord. Let us pacify the country and return to reason."

Pending the outcome of the peace overtures, the Washington government will refrain from interference in the latest troubles between the two generals. It is felt here that the warning given them by Paul Fuller, President Wilson's personal representative, that the administration would discontinue their fighting in Mexico would be heeded.

ADMINISTRATION ANXIOUS. The cutting of all telegraphic and telephonic communication and the only railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico City by a force of men under Higinio Aguilar, in former Federal occupation, has caused uneasiness in official circles today, especially in view of the fact that many Americans who fled from Mexico City during the revolution had returned to the capital. Officials are anxious to get out of the city for communication being cut off and information as to what is transpiring in Mexico City.

Whether these developments in the situation would alter plans of the Washington government for the withdrawal of the American forces from Vera Cruz could not be foretold early today. Consul-General Canada at Vera Cruz has recommended to the State Department that in view of the changed situation, it would be advisable to retain the American forces there pending more normal conditions. It had been announced officially that the difference between Carranza and Villa would cause no change in the plans for the evacuation of Vera Cruz, although no date had been set.

PEACE PARLEY AWAITED.

Interest here today centered to a large extent in the efforts of General Pablo Gonzalez, chief of the army of the north, to patch up the differences between Carranza and Villa and the conference planned between George C. Carothers, the American consular agent, and General Obregon at Juarez. Carranza's intention was to be discussed. Carothers planned later to confer with Villa.

Rafael Zubaran Capmany, head of the local Constitutional agency, last night issued the following statement: "I am hopeful that the present conflict between the first chief, Venustiano Carranza, and General Villa will be peacefully and satisfactorily composed, for the reason that there is no real cause for its existence. I trust that when General Villa reconsiders his rash action he will disavow it for the genuine welfare of his country and in furtherance of its complete pacification."

It is apparent from the text of the following telegrams exchanged between Carranza and Villa that the latter had no real grounds for his position and that a peaceful arrangement between them will be found.

CARRANZA'S NOTE.

"Mexico City, Sept. 22, 1914. "Rafael Zubaran, Washington. "I transmit you herewith information obtained by me in a telegraphic conference with El Paso. When Obregon arrived in Chihuahua Villa was angry because Hill's troops had not left Sonora, and he asked Carranza to issue orders for the immediate withdrawal of these troops. Obregon replied that he would not do this unless Villa ordered that Maytorena's troops be placed under the command of General Cabral. This Villa refused to do."

"When Obregon remained firm in his stand Villa became infuriated and ordered a guard to take Obregon out and shoot him. Obregon fearlessly told Villa that if it was necessary for him to give up his life to obtain the pacification of his country he would gladly do so. Obregon's statement was sent to Villa. "How can you shoot a disarmed guest?" Rafael Madero added his entreaties, and the execution did not take place."

Obregon is to be kept in Chihuahua until Hill leaves Sonora with his troops. If Hill checks Maytorena, Obregon will be shot. Julio Madero carries the order for the withdrawal of Hill's forces. Compliance with it is the only way that the life of Obregon can be saved. (Signed) "V. CARRANZA."

"Following the receipt of this intelligence, Carranza ordered the closing of the railroad north of Aguas Calientes. When Villa was informed of this move he sent the following telegram to Carranza: "Chihuahua, Sept. 22, 1914. "I have just been informed that, following an order from headquarters, the railroad traffic north of Aguas Calientes has been discontinued. This order is an act which shows hostility toward the division of the north: it is obviously unjustifiable and one for which I can find no reason. I am requesting you to give me an immediate explanation of this matter, so I may know how to act. The states and cities through which the railroad passes will suffer considerable damage by this order. It is necessary to remedy this condition as soon as possible. I am awaiting your immediate reply. (Signed) "FRANCISCO VILLA."

"The communication Carranza replied as follows: "Mexico City, Sept. 22, 1914. "Before answering your message, which I have just received,

I desire an explanation of your conduct toward General Obregon in Chihuahua."

"CARRANZA" (Signed)

"Villa sent the following telegram in answer to this request: "Chihuahua, Sept. 22, 1914."

"In answer to your message, I hereby inform you that General Obregon and other generals of this division left last night for the capital with the purpose of taking up important matters in connection with the general situation of the republic; but, in view of the course you have taken, which shows an avowed desire to place obstacles in the way of reaching a satisfactory arrangement of all difficulties, I have given orders for them to discontinue their trip and to halt at Torreon."

"Consequently, I inform you that this division will not take part in the convention which you have called, and I also inform you that the division of the north no longer recognizes you as the first chief of the republic. You are at liberty to pursue any course that may please you. (Signed) "FRANCISCO VILLA."

Secretary Garrison today decided to recall his forces, totaling approximately $500,000, imposed by the Hamburg-American liners Ypiranga, Bavaria and Danla for alleged irregularities in their clearance papers shortly after the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

Secretary Garrison today ordered Brigadier-General F. Funston, commanding the American forces at Vera Cruz, not to withdraw during the next ten days. Secretary Garrison announced that the order was caused by a delay of the disbursement of many details incident to the transfer of funds and the custom house.

Brigadier-General Biles, commanding the border forces, telegraphed the war department today that all telegraph wires had been cut south of Laredo, Eagle Pass and Juarez.

TO CONFER ON PEACE.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 25.—Telegraphic dispatches received here by Samuel Beiden, legal representative for General Carranza, from R. V. Pesquera, now in the city of Mexico, announce that following a conference there today a body of military chiefs has been appointed to attempt to make peace between the Constitutionists and the division of the north, commanded by General Villa.

WILL DIAZ JOIN VILLA?

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 25.—Francisco Carbajal, provisional president of Mexico from the time of Huerta's downfall until Carranza occupied the post, and Felix Diaz, who was the first revolutionary against the Madero government, are on their way to El Paso to confer with officials of General Villa, who announced his independence of the Carranza central government. This was announced by Carranza officials here on advice from agents at New Orleans and San Antonio.

A combination with the Villa revolutionists of the old federal element, combined with members of the "Cienista" party, which flourished under the Diaz regime, is being formed by this and other assertions of the Carranza element.

It was declared that through the influence of General Felipe Angeles, Carranza's proposed secretary of war, who early in the Carranza-Villa estrangement had attached himself with the northern chieftain, the financial backing of the old political party was being allied with the new Villa revolt.

VILLA AFTER MUNITIONS.

It is stated that one of General Villa's agents was in Vera Cruz recently canvassing the fugitives here. It is stated that promises were held out to some of them that if they joined Villa their old ranks would be recognized.

It is said that Higinio Aguilar has about 6000 men in his force, the greater part of them old army men, whose officers have held them together. Associated with Aguilar are Generals Arguendo and Andrew Almaraz.

It is reported here that General Villa recently attempted to buy ammunition in the United States, but failed to contract for more than 2,000,000 rounds.

MAYTORENA WITH VILLA.

NOGALES, Sonora, Sept. 25.—Jose Maria Maytorena, governor of the state of Sonora, yesterday proclaimed the allegiance of Sonora to General Villa in his defiance of General Carranza, and refused to recognize Carranza as the first chief of the constitutional army or in any other capacity.

TROOPS PURSUE AGUILAR.

VERMILION, Mex., Sept. 25.—The Constitutional troops sent out to the north of Vera Cruz to check the supposed revolutionary movement under Higinio Aguilar are today reported to have entered the mountains below Alta Luz, where this former Federal general and followers were last seen, and he appeared to be awaiting attack. Aguilar is supposed to be moving toward Vera Cruz, yesterday driving out a post of twenty-five men, eight of whom were killed.

Telegraphic communication with Mexico City, destroyed yesterday by Aguilar, was restored today.

The American transport Kliptrick has arrived here.

Canadian Statesman Meets Sudden Death

By Associated Press.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 25.—Sir James Whitney, premier of Ontario, is dead. Although Sir James had been confined to his home since August 1, his death was unexpected and sudden.

A physician hastily summoned reached the home a few minutes after Sir James was stricken, but the premier was dead. Cerebral hemorrhage caused by hardening of the arteries was the immediate cause of death. He was nearly 71 years old.

Sir James Whitney was one of the chief leaders in Canada in opposition to the reciprocity plan proposed by President Taft.

desk at the railroad station. There, too, his relations were extremely cordial, it is said. Many persons mistook him for a kinsman of President Ripley of the Santa Fe, a connection which Ripley usually denied. His friend was L. W. Potter, passenger and freight agent at the station until last Tuesday, when R. A. Podleck succeeded to the position. Since that date C. G. Wood, traveling auditor, began an audit of the accounts. He said this morning that he had discovered no discrepancies in any of the records so far examined.

NO BUSINESS WORRY.

Ripley had neither complained to his business associates, nor told his wife of business worries. Her first intimation that all was not well came this morning, when her husband did not arise for breakfast.

After 8 o'clock he sent her to the Santa Fe station, a few blocks from the apartments, with a message to his assistant that he was ill and could not attend to his duties today, and wanted the company physician sent to him. Dr. E. G. Simon was accordingly notified. Before the physician reached the place Mrs. Ripley had returned and found her husband bleeding. What had occurred in her absence was this, made apparent by the bits of evidence collected by police and the coroner: Ripley had got out of bed and gone to the living room, where he left three notes, written in pencil, on the table. One was simply the following order:

Santa Fe Railroad: Kindly give all my wages to my wife.

ALLEN M. RIPLEY.

HIS FINAL WRITING.

The second was his farewell, which read:

My Dearest Sue: I don't want to do this, sweetheart, but I am losing my mind, and rather than to be a burden to you, I am going to do it. May God bless you, Dearest, is my last wish. Yours forever, AL.

Finally was the will, tersely reading:

My last will and testament. All I have, both personal and real, I bequeath to my wife. ALLEN M. RIPLEY JR.

Before his wife returned he had gone back to bed and shot himself, putting the muzzle of his revolver, a 38-caliber weapon, in his mouth. Mrs. Ripley went at once to Allen's bedroom. He was lying on his back, and his appearance startled her. "All your nose is bleeding," she was heard to cry out; then, "Why don't you speak to me?"

She shook him by the shoulder, she said afterward in incoherent words, and called for help. A neighbor, Mrs. Cohen, summoned Dr. W. R. Reud, who said Ripley had killed himself instantly. A few minutes later Dr. Simon, sent by the Santa Fe, arrived, and then the coroner and police were called. The body went to the morgue for an inquest, which will be held next week. Mrs. Ripley, however, is being attended by the physicians. She is but 20 years of age.

Americans in Peril in South Sea Isles

That the deep in shipping resulting from the European war has worked grave hardship on American residents in the South Sea Islands, is the news reaching Oakland in a letter from Mrs. Mary Irwin, a missionary, now in Slam, who some time ago was an Oakland resident. Mrs. Irwin has written to friends at the Hotel Oakland, asking for a release in Slam, as she is facing danger of starvation as a result of the shipping trouble, and has asked her friends to write to the American Consulate in London, asking for a release.

Her letter will be referred to the Commercial Union for action.

FRANKLIN RECORD FOR AIR COOLING

Remarkable Demonstration Is Made Driving All Day on Low Gear.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)
Covering 112.5 miles in eight hours and forty minutes, an average of 13.1 miles an hour, over all sorts of roads, and grades, on 12 1/2 gallons of gasoline, using 12 pints of oil on the run and pulling up to the starting point with the motor running as smoothly as when the start was made, is the summary of the work of the San Francisco entry in the national low-gear test held yesterday throughout the United States and Canada by the Franklin Motor Company. The local demonstration was made under the auspices of the John F. McLean Company, Northern California Franklin distributors, and the car used was the firm's 1914 six-cylinder 30-horse power demonstrator, that was started in the test without any special preparation. The start was made from the McLean headquarters at 7:35 a. m. and the motor was kept in operation until it returned to the California-street showroom at 4:55 p. m., pulling all the time on low gear save for 15 minutes, when it ran idle while the driver, Jack Sturges, and the observers partook of their noonday refreshment. The route covered was along Van Ness avenue, through the mission to Millbrae, to the Spring Valley lakes, Halfmoon Bay, San Geronimo, La Honda, Woodside, Menlo Park, Redwood City and back by way of the State Highway and Mission road to the starting point. The mountain roads from La Honda to Woodside were heavy and dusty, and the road from Halfmoon Bay to La Honda was badly plowed up and full of ruts. From Woodside over a sandy road to Menlo Park, and here the correct path was overlooked and a five-mile circle had to be made to get back on the right road again. From the start Sturges hit a 15-mile-an-hour clip and this pace did not vary a fraction in climbing or descending grades, save in making the many sharp turns on the mountain passes. At no time on the entire 112.5 miles did the engine falter or the cylinder miss fire. When the speedometer showed 85.5 miles Sturges noted from his sight gauge that the oil was feeding slowly, and rather than take chances he decided to put in two pints of oil to make certain that no mishap would occur on the last 15 miles of the journey. The test was made with John J. Doyle of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, Stuart Gaynes and Leon J. Finkson, the automobile editor of the Chronicle, as observers, while John McLean, head of the Franklin agency here, was also passenger on the car. Naturally McLean was most enthusiastic over the successful showing, and in speaking of it after the test said: "The record we made in this test clearly shows that our claims for our air-cooled motor are not exaggerations, and I doubt if any factory building water-cooled motors can duplicate our record. Personally I had little doubt but that our test would be a success. We demonstrated it here several months ago when we made a low-gear test run to San Jose and return, making practically the same average time and using about the same amount of gasoline. In these two demonstrations we clearly show the consistency of the Franklin motor and Franklin construction."

SANTA FE IS RELIEVED OF SUBSIDIZED DEBT

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The complaint of Francis S. Atale, suing as bondholder against the Atchafalaya, Topoka & Santa Fe railroad, was dismissed in the Supreme Court here yesterday. In his decision Justice Greenbaum said the law is that the ownership of a majority of the capital stock of a corporation by another with the resultant virtual control of the former by the latter, does not make the dominant company liable for the obligations of the controlled company. The plaintiff alleged that the holders of $12,000,000 worth of income mortgage bonds, of which he was one, had been deprived of their lien against the Atchafalaya & Pacific railroad through the alleged collusion of the same road by the reorganization committee of the Atchafalaya, Topoka & Santa Fe, after the same committee in 1913 had procured the property of the Atchafalaya, Topoka & Santa Fe through its purchase at sale under foreclosure of a $200,000,000 mortgage for $60,000,000.

RELIEF STEAMER RESCUED. NOME, Alaska, Sept. 23.—The Karluk relief steamer Corwin, which has been aground since last Saturday off Cape Douglas, between Teller and Nome, was rescued from her dangerous position by the revenue cutter Bear, aided by Captain Ross and the Nome life saving crew, according to a message received here yesterday. It is expected that both the Bear and Corwin will arrive here shortly. In the message received it was stated that the Corwin was pulled off the uncharted rock she struck after she had been lighted by the life savers and crew of the Bear. What damage she suffered, if any, was not stated. BANKERS CHOOSE S. F. DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 23.—William S. Evans, Philadelphia, was elected president and San Francisco was chosen as the 1915 meeting place by the American Institute of Banking yesterday at the closing session of its twelfth annual convention. Thomas H. West, Portland, Ore., was elected vice-president.

GREAT THROGS HEAR FREDERICKS

Republican Standard Bearer Is Given Ovation in Southern California.

POMONA, Sept. 25.—Following a highly successful trip through San Diego, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties, Captain Frederick's reception in Pomona was a record-breaking one. He was met by an immense audience, having good crowds at each of the meetings here and there. The candidate had no reason to complain of his reception in San Bernardino county yesterday. He began at 5 o'clock in the morning, and his first stop was at Cucamonga, Upland, Ontario and Chino, in San Bernardino county, farmers, fruitmen and stockgrowers turned out in masses to hear him. Hundreds came to automobiles from all points of the compass. That which is true of San Bernardino county towns is also true of Chino and Lodi in Los Angeles county. During his addresses Captain Frederick refuted the statements made by Progreed that with the Republicans restored to power the Railroad Commission, created by a Republican administration, would be abolished. He declared it will be a serious mistake to believe that. He said that when elected he would complete the highway system which the Progressive party has neglected. Among other statements in his address in Pomona was the following: "There is to be no more bitterness, no more nastiness. The Republican party will be victorious in November. It will be victorious at the next Presidential election. I say to you, Mr. Progressive, that when these two events are over you will be as welcome back in the Republican fold as you would be in your father's house. I know that you will come back to your party; that deep down in your heart you know this is true."

Captain Frederick will be in San Francisco Monday next to remain a few hours for consultation with party leaders preceding a trip to Fresno, Dunsmuir and Weed the day following. He will speak at Yreka on Tuesday evening, Wednesday at Ukiah, Thursday at Colusa, Friday at Red Bluff and Saturday, Sunday, at Tehama and Chico; Friday, at Oroville, and Saturday at Lincoln and Roseville, closing his tour of the Sacramento valley at the Uncle Sam Theater at Roseville Saturday night. Republican candidate for United States Senator, Joseph B. Knowland, was in Los Angeles yesterday, holding a conference with Republican leaders of that city. Among those who attended the conference were the following county chairmen of the southern subdivisions: W. M. Bowen of Los Angeles, G. T. Bigelow of Riverside, J. W. Duckworth of Orange, W. J. Abrahamson of Riverside, D. V. Nolan of Imperial, John J. Seider of Santa Barbara and N. W. Blanchard of Ventura. It was unanimously agreed that the people were weary of the one-man rule of Hiram Johnson and that the machine rule would be replaced by a Republican administration, and that the result would be a landslide for Frederick, Knowland and the entire ticket. Mr. Knowland is in Stockton today, where he is delivering an address before the Inland Waterways Commission. He leaves Stockton tonight to join Captain Frederick at Whittier tomorrow. The candidate for governor and senator will deliver a half dozen speeches during the day, closing with a tremendous rally before the Los Angeles Republican Club tomorrow night, at which they will be the principal speakers. The club has been making great preparations for this event, and it is believed the gathering will be one of the largest ever held in Southern California and the largest in Long Beach. Congressman Knowland is very popular in the region, and his appearance, together with that of Mr. Frederick, promises to tax the capacity of the auditorium in which the gathering will be held.

The Supreme Court yesterday denied the application of William H. Hart, candidate for attorney-general at the recent primary, to compel the Secretary of State to remove from the name of the U. S. Webb as the Republican candidate for the office to which Mr. Hart aspired. The same ruling will permit the candidate of John M. Eshleman for lieutenant-governor. The court held that the vital point was settled in this section of the primary law: "Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to limit the rights of any person to become the candidate of more than one political party for the same office upon complying with the provisions of this act."

Commenting upon this paragraph, the court said: "This being the clear intent of the framers of the act, we cannot see in the provision any violation of the constitutional restrictions."

John B. Curtin addressed a meeting in San Pedro last night, in company with Jo V. Snyder, candidate for lieutenant-governor on the Democratic ticket. Today Curtin is making a 100-mile trip with four speeches on his program.

Mrs. N. E. Davidson of Kings county, who is a candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction against Edward Ayres, incumbent, is opening headquarters in San Francisco and preparing for the establishing of several Davidson clubs in the bay city region. She will later address a series of meetings in this section. Mrs. Davidson is the only woman candidate on the state ticket and the women of California are making earnest efforts to secure her election.

Governor Hiram Johnson spoke at Hanford, Kings county, last night, having held a meeting previously in Coalinga and one in Lemoore.

KNOWLAND SPEAKS ON WATERWAYS

Candidates Appear Before Inland Association, Giving Their Views.

STOCKTON, Sept. 25.—At today's sessions of the Inland Waterways Association, Joseph R. Knowland, Francis J. Henry and James W. Flaherty, candidates for the United States senate, spoke on "What the United States Government Should Do in Developing Inland Waterways."

Tonight's session will be given over to George H. Maxwell, who will speak on "The national aspect of the Newlands-Broussard bill."

Yesterday's session developed that the association is determined to unify state-wide office and formulate a plan for solving the water problems with which the State is confronted, including irrigation, reclamation, navigation, storage and other kindred subjects. About 100 delegates are in attendance and Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda and the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys are represented. Vice-President Chester H. Rowell of Fresno is presiding.

A movement has been started for a membership of 10,000 throughout California.

GETS INTO TROUBLE HERE HIS PROBATION EXPIRES

Whether a pistol or six pearl-handled fruit knives are the best instruments for shuffling off this mortal coil hasn't been decided yet by Edward Miller; the police caught him too soon.

"I was going to kill myself, judge," was his plea for mercy in Judge Samuel's courtroom a month ago, after he had been arrested in a West Oakland park for carrying concealed weapons. He was released on a month's probation, and yesterday was hailed before the judge for a second time, when six stolen fruit knives were found hidden in his clothes.

He didn't threaten suicide again. Possibly the idea of using all six knives at once seemed too ambitious an undertaking, but he got fifty days in the county jail instead.

ETHEL ROOSEVELT AND HUSBAND OFF TO WAR

WOMEN IN FISTICUFFS.

Mrs. R. P. Barbieri, 1429 Thirtieth avenue, was arrested today on a battery charge preferred by Mrs. Nellie Walker, 1257 East Twelfth street, as a result of an altercation last night at a motion picture theater between the children of the two women. Mrs. Walker alleged that Mrs. Barbieri punched her in the face. Mrs. Barbieri, a Corporal in the Navy, who made the arrest, with Patrolman McCormack, that she had to hit Mrs. Walker for fear Mrs. Walker, who was a much larger woman, might hit her first.

ECZEMA IN MASS OF PIMPLES

Itching Burning Sensation Unbearable, Severe Irritation, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Free From Eczema.

2511 Bent St., Cheyenne, Wyo.—"My eczema appeared in the worst form. It looked like a great mass of pimples. The itching and burning sensation was unbearable and it was impossible for me to sleep for more than a half hour at a time so severe was the irritation. "After we tried medicines and other remedies which did not prove successful a neighbor told us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. My mother obtained the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and began using them immediately. I washed my face and head thoroughly with the Soap and warm water and then applied the Ointment. I began to improve rapidly and within two weeks I was perfectly free from the eczema." (Signed) Maceo Crane, Sept. 3, 1914.

More than four hundred delegates from all parts of the state are attending, the 150 representatives from Oakland, San Francisco and the bay cities arriving today on a special train. The purpose of this convention, which will close on Sunday, is to bring together a group of older boys from high schools and preparatory schools to give them the opportunity of discussing problems of mutual interest and to add them to carry on uplift work. Elaborate preparations for their reception and entertainment have been made.

Entertainment features planned for each day will include banquets, motor trips and excursions up the Sacramento river. The Chamber of Commerce has provided distinctive badges for the visitors, who will be accommodated at the Y. M. C. A. and in private homes during their stay.

McDonald belonged to the Rutia, Monte, Miners Union.

'BE AMERICANS,' LILIENTHAL SAYS

United Railroads Chief Soon to Employ Only Citizens of Republic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Jesse W. Lilienthal, president of the United Railroads, said yesterday that he believes in America for Americans, and further to elucidate his views on this subject as head of a big corporation, he has written a letter to his employees which will appear in a few days in the company's official organ. The letter in full follows: "I am a great believer in the brotherhood of man. I do not care what a man's race or religion or his humble his position in life. Whatever it may be, I feel toward him that he is my equal, and I am always ready to treat him as my equal so long as he leads an honest and industrious life.

"I am a student and industrious German, or Irishman, or Frenchman, or Italian, Mexican, Greek or Russian or Slavonian is, in my eyes, worthy and deserving of equal treatment as an honest and industrious American.

ABHORERS ALIEN SPIRIT. "My own parents were born abroad, but when they came to this country it was for the purpose of making America their permanent home and of bringing up their children as loyal American citizens. "On the other hand, I do not believe in the foreigners who come to this country simply to make money, and who do not consider it good enough for any other purpose. I believe that our doors should be open to the oppressed and unfortunate and enterprising of all nations, who have it in them to make good American citizens, but I also believe that these doors should be closed to those who come here only to exploit the country and to leave it when they have done so sufficiently. And in order to discourage the coming of that sort, employers should, in my opinion, turn their backs on that kind of element.

WANTS AMERICANS.

"I wish the men to understand my attitude on this question, as I shall probably issue an order before long prohibiting the employment of any man who is not an American citizen, or who has not at least taken out his first papers; that is to say, declared his purpose to become an American citizen. And I may take a further step and order the discharge of employees who do not answer to that description.

"I mention this at this time, so that all employees desiring to remain within the service of the company may take the necessary steps to retain their positions. "The blessings of this country have never been so apparent as at the present time, when almost the whole of the rest of the world is devastated by war and threatened with starvation. And these blessings should be reserved for those who come here to be good Americans, discharging all allegiance except that to the dear old Stars and Stripes.

"JESSE W. LILIENTHAL."

TAXPAYERS' COLUMN

All Communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must be in care of the address of the writer.

THE EIGHT-HOUR BILL.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Rev. W. Mayne Healey, a preacher of the Adventist church, which numbers only about 2000 voters in California, wrote the official argument against the one day of rest in seven bill, which is numbered 45 on the ballot. A leaflet is being distributed through the state by the "Pacific Liberty Association," a deceptive title assumed by the Adventist church to cover up their identity, and said leaflet was written by this same preacher Healey. Then a woman formerly connected with this church is talking their stock arguments against this bill on the street corners of San Joaquin valley cities.

The California State Federation of Laborers, that is supporting the one day of rest in seven bill in behalf of 15,000 barbers and other fellow workmen, offers the following corrections to the above information furnished in this personal reply:

In your argument (?) Eder Healey, you falsely state that the bill grants the right of choice "to labor, or employ labor eight hours in one day, forty-eight hours in one week, but denies this right of choice to those who wish to labor or employ labor forty-eight hours and a few minutes in one week." There is no provision in the bill which restricts labor to eight hours a day, nor to forty-eight hours in one week, to those who work but six days. It is a six-day law without restrictions as to the number of hours that six-day workers may labor. It is a vicious misrepresentation sent to all the voters of the state.

Then in your leaflet, which is full of false statements, you say: "This measure proposes to establish Sunday as a law of the day of rest and worship." We challenge you to find a word in the bill about Sunday as a day of worship. We want you to understand that this is not a religious law, but a civil enactment for a weekly day of rest. There is not a word in it about keeping Sunday as a religious day, but it does protect your Adventist in your right of resting on Saturday and working the other six days of the week. You have no ground for complaint, yet you are the one who are fighting the bill. The Jews are loyal to American institutions.

The gist of your whole contention is that this six-day law, which is in accord with the principle of organized labor, is a religious measure because a part of the wage-earners will rest on Sunday. It is almost thousands of men will rest on some other day of the week. In

ARGUMENTS ANENT WAR LANDS ONE IN HOSPITAL

The fact that patriotism still runs high was demonstrated last night, when E. Weber, a plasterer of German extraction, attempted to annihilate several followers of the fortunes of the allies, because of their connections concerning the war. The result was disastrous for Ed, so the allies can claim another victory.

When the police had gathered what remained of Weber, they hurried him to the emergency hospital. There Steward Charles Deley patched up the two lacerated wounds on his head and saved up the injured optic. Weber claims that he is teaching at Los Angeles, and asserts that it is his firm intention to return without a further delay.

"The city is in a sense morally responsible in this matter, as the city council was instrumental in having Battery B located in Oakland," said Mayor Morrell. "There are only two batteries of field artillery in California, the other being at Los Angeles. The equipment cost approximately $110,000 and it was necessary that we should provide a suitable building or we could not have qualified to have the battery located here. We assured General Forbes that he would be safe in granting Oakland our battery."

"At that time it seemed certain that an armory would be erected in Oakland by the State of California. A bill was

COFFEE AS MISSILE IN EXTREME CRUELTY

Louise Maitre today filed suit in the Superior Court for divorce from Emilie Maitre alleging extreme cruelty.

The plaintiff alleged that her husband abused and maltreated her in private and in the presence of others, that he struck her and called her vile names and that when she was with child he abused her, calling her a mere cow, and on one occasion at the breakfast table he hurled a cup full of coffee

They were married on the 20th of May, 1908, and separated this year. She asks $50 alimony for the support of herself and child.

Ennabta J. Redmond also filed suit for divorce against Frank Martin Redmond, charging him with extreme cruelty. She alleges that since their marriage in October, 1910, the defendant has been in the habit of calling her names. She asks the custody of her 3-year-old daughter, Ella Marie.

Mrs. Amy Teeters today put in an application in Superior Judge Waste's court for ailment amounting to $10 per month, to aid in the support of herself and her 5-year-old boy.

Mrs. Teeter is at present suing her husband for divorce on the ground of non-support. He in return has filed a cross-complaint charging her with desertion. The case will be set for trial early next week.

ARNOLD DALY IN PROPHET'S ROLE

Actor Forecasts for Watchful
Waiting, Japan, European War and Commerce.

"A God-carrier's offspring may become a gentleman—in four generations."
"Money does not turn the head of a gentleman—only he to whom fortune comes suddenly."
"Culture will rid the world of war—until war rids the world of culture."
"The czar of Russia is no greater an autocrat than John D. Rockefeller."
"Bernard Shaw is a dreamer—he expects the world to become as civilized as his is."
—Sayings of Arnold Daly.

It isn't every actor that will venture to discuss commerce, international disputes, or war—and there are still fewer actors who can do it and "get away with it." That's where Arnold Daly, Orpheum Star, "has it on" his Thespian brothers—he talks of war and love, commerce and ethics, from the practical viewpoint, and knows whereof he speaks as well as any expert who won't talk these troublesome times.

Daly, who's been in Europe so many times that he knows it by heart, declares that, while Europe is having its troubles, the United States is soon to face a crisis—albeit because this country did not step into Mexico.

"The Mexican people are children," declared Daly, "and they need guidance and the influence of a powerful country. In the meantime the Japanese situation is the real peril in this country. The time will come when the United States will be forced to control Mexico—perhaps annex it—for we will need these children of the tropics to aid in combating the yellow peril." (Daly's Japanese valet at this point left the dressing room.)

WAR IS BANE TO WORLD.
That the present crisis in Europe will not be of actual benefit to this nation is another of Daly's "sayings," declared, "We should do better to handle this commerce now—but later return it, gaining friendship and respect of the commercial world."
Daly has his own views on autocracy, too. For instance, there's a moneyed autocracy, he says, in this country, more powerful than that of the war lords of Europe.

"The czar of Russia," he asserted, "is no greater autocrat than John D. Rockefeller."
ABOUT G. B. S.
From war Daly's discussion jumped to plays, and authors.

"Do you believe a playlet featuring hypnotism, does the public any good?" he was asked.
"Well, in the case of mine (ask no questions) a comedy undercurrent takes away any bad effect that might otherwise be there. It's whimsical—that's all. That's where Bernard Shaw used to be great—but unfortunately, he's doing his best work. Bernard Shaw's a dreamer—he expects the world to become as civilized as his is!"

Daly then forced his discussion of the war and the world to search for an alcohol bottle.

Redeclared and refurbished, to the tone of spick and span brilliance, the Oakland Orpheum theater management announces that the big temple of vaudeville on Twelfth street will begin its fall season next Sunday, with an extraordinary

'PINAFORE' TO BE OFFERED TONIGHT

Gilbert & Sullivan Nautical
Satire Scheduled for the Macdonough.

"Dick Deadeye," "Black Dead Eye" and the rest of the characters that, years ago, delighted children and grown-ups alike, will come out of the musty memories of years ago to delight again, tonight, when "Pinafore," one of the greatest favorites of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, will be presented at the Macdonough by De Wolf Hopper and his clever company. The success of "The Mikado," "Iolanthe" and "The Pirates of Penzance," which have already been presented by the clever comedian and his singers, augurs well for "Pinafore," and news of its success in other cities indicate a lavish production.

"Pinafore" was written as a satire on the English admiralty of thirty odd years ago. Its beautiful music and its clever comedy, however, have outlived its satirical sting. Few who see it remember the conditions which led to its production, all go away remembering the hilarious songs and clever lines of the noted "Fathers of Comic Opera."

As "Dick Deadeye" Hopper has one of his best roles in the present repertoire of operas. The Gilbert and Sullivan Company, with Henry Watrous, Arthur Cunningham, John Willard, dainty Gladys Caldwell and the other stars are well cast. Willard will appear as "Captain Corcoran," and Idelle Patterson as Josephine, the captain's daughter. Arthur Cunningham will be cast as "Sir Joseph Porter, First Lord of the Admiralty." "Pinafore" will be presented again tomorrow at the matinee and tomorrow night will see "The Mikado" presented again.

CHARGES VIOLENT ROBBERY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—John Allen, a clerk, living at 118 Day street, was charged with robbery early this morning for an alleged attack on Bontia Ravello of 45 Bartlett alley. The young woman claimed that Allen seized her $150 diamond ring from her finger. He was arrested by Officers Gurtner and Downing.

MUST PROVIDE HEADLIGHTS.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The state railroad commission has refused to grant a license of time to the Nevada-California-Oregon railway in which to equip its locomotives with headlights in accordance with the new California law. The company wanted until November 17, but will have to comply with the law by October 15.

any show, planned to mark the beginning of the formal fall and winter vaudeville engagements.
Under the direction of Hans Ledebor, an artist from Holland, the Orpheum has been transformed into a decorative play during the last month so that many who formerly knew it well might fail to recognize it in its new dress. The color scheme is a combination of light and dark, with a touch of old gold and rose where festoons and landscape effects were arranged. Draperies and carpets have all been planned to match this color scheme and the effect throughout is delightful to the eye.

'DEAD' HUSBAND RETURNS TO LIFE

Contra Costan Asks Annulment; Says Predecessor Came Back.

Martinez, Sept. 25.—A. M. Carrel, a Walnut Creek merchant, filed suit in the Superior Court today to annul his marriage to Helen Carrel, contracted eleven years ago, annulled. He represented that he married her believing that his bride's first husband had died at sea. Husband No. 1, he says, has since returned. Four Richmond couples were divorced here yesterday. They are: Kate Hopkins from James H. Hopkins, cruelty; Minnie Cook from Daniel L. Cook, cruelty; Gladys M. Ochsereiter from Louis C. Ochsereiter, cruelty; and M. J. Beaumont from Georgiana Beaumont, desertion.

Martinez, Sept. 25.—With the arrival of a permit from the War Department for the country to build a draw bridge across Pacheco slough, the last obstacle standing in the way of the building of the Martinez-Bay Point direct road is removed and work will start at once on this highway. The new road will parallel the bay shore and the Southern Pacific tracks from here to Bay Point and will bring the eastern county towns five miles closer to Martinez, the long detour via Concord being avoided.

San Rafael, Sept. 25.—Paul A. Schuchert, the 21-year-old farmhand who slew his employer, William H. Schuchert, at Black Point Monday during a quarrel, was formally charged with murder here. Schuchert will plead self-defense.

Hanford, Sept. 25.—Heavy rain fell late yesterday on the Kings county crop of raising now spread out for drying, resulting in losses to growers. The extent of the damage depends upon the weather tomorrow. With a bright sunny day the damage will be greatly reduced.

Yuba City, Sept. 25.—Taxpayers of Sutter county gathered here yesterday and protested the proposed assessments of $7,000 and $200,000, respectively, which the State Reclamation Board plans to levy on the property owners of this, as well as other nearby counties.

ORIENTAL GAIETY TO REIGN AT Y. W. C. A.

High festivity and Oriental gaiety will reign at the Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow afternoon, when the Chinese girls of the Lien Fa Club will entertain the Chinese girls' club of the San Francisco Young Women's Christian Association. In honor of the visitors the hostesses have prepared an elaborate Occidental program of musical numbers and recitations, very American in character, as well as a farce with a New England title, "Aunt Jennifer's Money." Fifty or more guests will be present in addition to the Chinese maidens, many of whom will wear their beautiful national costume.

Following an address of welcome by Dr. Minora Kibbe, an elaborate program will be presented.

DANIELS DISCUSSES BIG INLAND WATERWAY PLAN

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 25.—What the proposed great inland waterway from Massachusetts Bay to the Rio Grande would mean to the nation in time of war was discussed here today by Secretary Daniels of the Navy Department before the convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association.
Not only will this waterway lend itself tremendously to the development of inland commerce and tend to bring down the rates of transportation, said Daniels, but it also provides usual facilities for self defense in time of war.

MARCONI STATIONS ON PACIFIC ARE OPENED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—With an interchange of messages between President Wilson and Governor Pinkham of Hawaii, spanning 2100 miles of open ocean, the two great Marconi stations on the Pacific were opened yesterday afternoon. "May God bless the nations together in thought and purpose and lasting peace!"
Was the thought from the President that spread over the sunlit sea from the significant mast of the Bolinas station. Almost simultaneously it was read by the operator at Kahuku, in Hawaii, for the time of wireless transmission between these two points is but a fraction of one second.

It was amid scenes of festivities in each of the great concrete stations that this new service was opened. At Kahuku Governor Pinkham and 200 representative men of Hawaii were assembled, and the first message was sent from the luncheon table. At Bolinas, where the big buildings of the new station stand on the cliff overlooking the ocean, there were rather ered representatives of San Francisco, her commercial interests and the Chamber of Commerce.

Do you know that---

Oakland has more than tripled its population in 13 years. Its growth as a home center is unequalled in California and this growth is more than keeping up, the increase in the number of residences constructed gaining week by week and month by month.

In 1890, the population of the city was 66,960; in 1910 it was 150,174; and January 1, 1914, it had passed the 205,000 mark and was more than three times as large as in 1890.

This means a steady increase of more than 10,000 persons, or about 2,500 families, yearly, and in majority of cases they own their own homes.

The wonderful growth in the value of Oakland real estate and its permanence as a money making investment is shown by the steady increase from year to year in the assessed valuation of property. In 1904 the assessed value of Oakland property was $51,556,242. This year it is $152,243,250, a gain of $100,742,008 in 10 years.

Oakland is the home of more than 11,000 railway men, nearly double that of any other city on the coast.

The yearly payroll of the transportation companies to men employed in Oakland is $3,300,000, compared with $4,000,000 in Los Angeles, and $2,200,000 in Sacramento.

About 44,000 San Francisco business men and women have their homes on the Oakland side of the bay.

This is but a few of the many facts regarding the rapidly growing city of Oakland.

The man or woman who invests here now will make a handsome profit. When this sale is over the prices will go up. Investigate NOW.

Fredericks Smokes Them Out.

Charles F. Stern, California Highway Commissioner, is out with a statement in the Progressive press, in which he "replies" to assertions made by Captain John D. Fredericks, who recently criticised the commission for its large expenses and its political activities.

Mr. Stern, with some torridity, denies the assertion that the commission is in politics, but manifestly forgets that members, answering a distress signal by Hiram Johnson, engaged in a stump speaking campaign in the mountain counties just before the primaries.

Captain Fredericks asserted in a speech that he had been informed that the overhead expenses of the commission were more than $35,000 a month. Stern does not deny this, but offers to furnish data. He does not furnish it, merely offers to furnish it.

However, from his statement there may be gleaned some idea of what it costs to maintain this commission.

Stern says the office force consists of 105 persons definitely under civil service rules and thirty-seven temporarily under such rules. Stern says that in the field 170 employees are definitely under civil service rules and 102 are under temporary civil service regulations. We have no means of ascertaining what these persons receive, but assuming they are paid on the same basis as the leaf rakers of the capitol grounds and other employees under the illustrious George Radcliff, superintendent, $100 monthly is a fair average and that totals $41,400. Each of the three commissioners gets $300 a month, or $3600 per annum. Then we have a chief engineer at $10,000 per annum, a secretary and seven engineers at $3000 per annum each or $541,600 each year or $45,133.33 a month, something in excess of Captain Fredericks' estimate or information.

As to efficiency, it is a fact beyond dispute that in many places in California the cement roads are already falling into bad condition, that cracks are frequent; that because of their narrowness these cement "paths" are being chipped and broken by heavily loaded teams passing each other and that complaints have been made of the character of the work in numerous counties, notably Santa Clara and down the San Joaquin valley. Experts who have looked at them predict that before five interest payments on bonds have been made these highways will virtually need duplicating. By the time the bonds have matured they will have cost many times their original price and no one knows this better than Stern.

Reverting to the question of expense. It will be recalled that the commission on its road south decided to cross the San Juan grade into Salinas valley. But no work has as yet been done and as a mild suggestion it may be said that if the expenses of the commission are kept at more than half a million a year as they are now, the bond fund is likely to be exhausted ere Salinas is reached. That which applies to Salinas applies to other localities as well.

Fredericks is smoking out the highway commission and Stern appears to have been selected to do the squirming for that body.

Everybody in the State of California knows that the state highway commission has been doing politics for Hiram Johnson for the last six months.

Mayor Mott and Commissioner Bacus of the city council, yesterday assured the women who made the protest against locating the city stables and corral near the new municipal auditorium that no action would be taken for a year. This is satisfactory, so far as it goes, but the postponement should have been final. The grounds surrounding the auditorium should be used for park purposes, not for stables and the women who protested were right in their objections.

Billingsgate Fight on Fredericks.

In no campaign in this state has there been so much invective against a candidate as is being indulged in by the Progressive opponents of John D. Fredericks. Argument has been abandoned and in its stead we have billingsgate.

From a leading exponent of this latter-day Progressivism we take the following epithets as applied to the Republican candidate for Governor: "Cuttlefish," "cur," "skulker," "office boy," "coward," "creature," "tool," and others of lesser import.

John D. Fredericks is entitled to neither of these appellations, for he is a high minded, fearless gentleman of whom the people of California are proud and with good reason. His record is stainless, his entire life an open book.

When the war with Spain broke out, John D. Fredericks, responding to the call of President William McKinley, enlisted in the army of the United States, bade farewell to his wife and little children and prepared to bare his breast to the bullets of the foe on the firing line. This son of a talented and honored clergyman, educated at a military academy, at once demonstrated his fitness to command and was named captain-adjutant of the Seventh California Infantry.

Where were these men who are now deriding John D. Fredericks, at the time he left his lucrative practice of the law to tender his services to his country? Skulking in the brush like rabbits, hiding lest they receive an intimation that their places were at the front. These belittlers of greatness who employ the language of the fish-wife and the guttersnipe to attack this man had no thought of emulating the example of John D. Fredericks, but in fear and trembling hid behind the coat tails of such men as he until the danger had passed, and not until the last gun had been fired did they emerge from their self appointed exile. Why? Because they are the soldiers who man the mud batteries in times of peace when no bravery except that which applies to repelling attacks by soap is needed. Not for them the death dealing machinery of real war.

As in war John D. Fredericks met every duty manfully, so also in peace. The people of Los Angeles county elected him time and time again as their district attorney. He performed every duty faithfully and without fear. We all recall that greatest of great cases conducted by him, the trial of the McNamara. We all recall how he stood up in court and day by day wove the meshes of proof around these men, until finally, to save their necks they pleaded guilty. For his conduct in this case he has been commended universally. Union and non-union men alike have endorsed his course, and today there is not a union man in California who is opposing John D. Fredericks because of his conduct of that famous case, but on the contrary every honest union man is praising him for it.

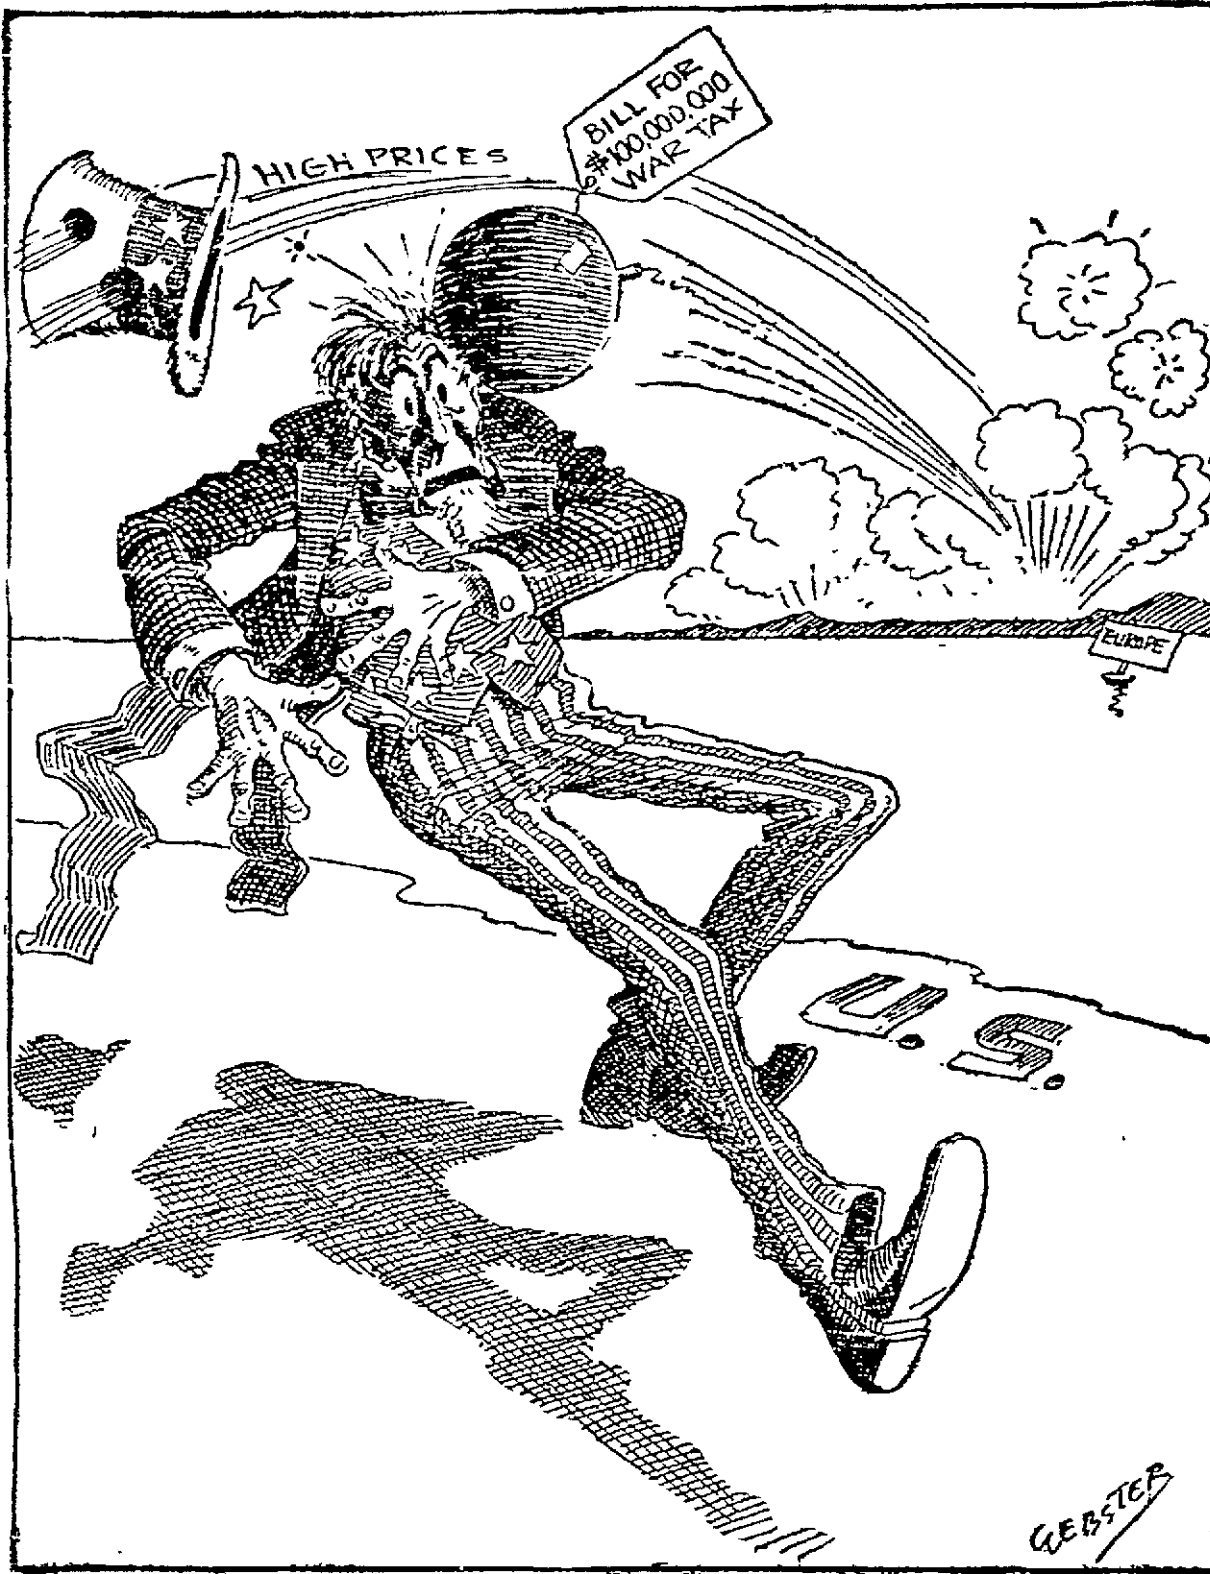

John D. Fredericks is the tool of no man or set of men. He was selected as the nominee of the Republican party by a vote of 103,274 out of a total of 240,941. That entire 240,941 is united behind him in this fight and will be aided by 100,000 more men and women at the general election. John D. Fredericks will be elected governor of California by 200,000 or more majority over Hiram Johnson. The people of California will resent the attacks of the mud slingers upon the Republican candidate who was a fearless soldier and has been all his life an independent, honest, fearless, loyal citizen and an efficient public servant.

With a Commercial Club of 2500 members, each working to advance the interests of the city, the future of Oakland will be magnificent.

So thorough in its efficiency is the government bureau of engraving and printing that mistakes are so rare as to be matters of great moment. Every sheet of paper is carefully traced and must be accounted for by an equal number of bills, good or bad. Hence it will cause some surprise to learn that a bill of the Aldrich-Vreeland currency issue was printed showing a value of ten dollars on one side and twenty on the other. It is said there is one more like it, the plate having printed two, and collectors are on the qui vive in an effort to obtain possession of it.

Instead of berating Fredericks for his tariff views, why does not Governor Johnson urge a revision of salaries downward? That would be a popular policy for the executive to adopt.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

—BUFFALO NEWS.

Villa Halts Mexican Peace.

Just at the time when peace prospects in Mexico were brightest and opportunities for a settlement of difficulties and the establishment of a stable government was at hand, General Francisco Villa takes action calculated to halt proceedings by virtually declaring an armed resistance to Carranza and the central authority he has established. Villa denounces Carranza and declares that neither he, nor the deputies from the State of Chihuahua will attend the convention next month at which it is proposed to elect a provisional president to hold office until such times as a regular election can take place.

Villa finds aid and comfort in the action of Governor Maytorena of Sonora who has proclaimed his independence of the Carranza government and as a result of the action, the two large border states are in a state of rebellion.

It matters little what the causes were for this course of conduct on the part of the two generals, the future is the problem. It is intimated in Washington that the order to withdraw the forces from Vera Cruz may be rescinded, in which event we may look for the troops along the border to remain. Of course under the policy of the president there is no reason for anticipating armed intervention, nor is it the wish of any citizen to plunge this country into war for the purpose of making our neighbors to the south behave.

Of late the good offices of the United States have been exercised in bringing about an adjustment of matters in Mexico, and for a time it looked as if success would attend them, but there seems to be something in the constitution and make up of the leaders that admits of no peaceful adjustment, and the men behind them apparently have an abiding faith in the judgment of their commanders; a faith that will prompt them to renew the strife on the slightest provocation.

With this sort of a mix-up confronting it, it is small wonder that the administration at Washington is perplexed. As matters now stand there appears to be little hope of solving the contentions, although in the intimation that the conference for the selection of a provisional president may be delayed ten days, there may be some consolation as this information is coupled with the statement that renewed attempts at pacifying the recalcitrant may be made in the intervals.

Every well wisher of Mexico will join in expressing a desire that peace may be achieved and the people given a chance to resume their occupations and taking part in the development of the resources of the land, yet at the same time there are many doubts. As a matter of fact it begins to look as if our neighbors to the south are not capable of self-government and need to be taught for a quarter of a century or more that the will of the majority shall be the supreme law. Who will teach that lesson? The future alone can determine.

Hard times are not felt in Arkansas if the following from the Pea Ridge Post is an indication. "Paw paws will soon be ripe, chinquapin burs are opening, the hazel nut crop is ripe, there are plenty of persimmons, while the walnut crop is in proportion to the apple and corn crop and hickory nuts and wild grapes are especially plentiful."

Even the soothing influence of that bathtub failed to quell the martial spirit of Villa.

Unless voters register on or before October 3, they cannot vote at the general election in November. It is the duty of every Republican to register and to vote. Are you registered? If not, why not?

Abolish This "Switchback."

On Broadway between Tenth and Eleventh streets there is a switchback or cross over maintained by the Oakland Traction Company that should be abolished. Passengers are brought to this spot and unceremoniously dumped in the middle of the street. There is no excuse for this sort of conduct or the continuation of this condition. THE TRIBUNE calls the attention of the city council to it and asks that steps be taken to abolish a nuisance, for that is what it is and nothing else. Broadway is one of the principal thoroughfares of Oakland and not a street where switching should be done in the middle of it to the inconvenience of patrons.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The Independent Order B'nai B'rith is taking steps to perpetuate itself and, at the same time, save from the effects of evil association, boys in their teens who may eventually become honored members of the organization. At the last meeting of the grand lodge of the order in this state it was decided to establish an auxiliary order, intended for boys after they have graduated from the Sunday school, with the hope of retaining them in the organization until they become eligible for admission. In accordance with this determination, Adler Auxiliary Lodge No. 1 was organized. The work of initiation was performed by First Grand Vice-President Abe Jonas of this city, assisted by the executive committee.

One of the most interesting entertainments of the season will be the grand testimonial benefit to be tendered to Captain Jack Williams, who was formerly teacher at the Piedmont baths. Among the hundreds whom he has taught are Dana Thompson and Daniel Greene.

The following officers for the term have been elected by the freshman class at the State University. President, James Oliver, first vice-president, Miss Mary C. McCleave; second vice-president, Miss Annie Landstrom, secretary, L. G. Faulkner, treasurer, Miss S. Robinson, Executive committee, Miss Mary Clark and Messrs. M. J. Jones, P. R. Thayer, E. J. Brown and B. Bakewell.

Thomas Driscoll, the well-known tennis player of this city, who is at present in the East, will sail for Europe in a fortnight to engage in tournaments across the water.

DEATH CURVE IS TITLE OF PAST

Turn on Foothill Boulevard Is Cut Away and Sharp Corner Obliterated.

HAYWARD, Sept. 25.—The ominous title of "Death Curve," applied to an "S" shaped turn on the Foothill boulevard, is now a thing of the past. The curve has been cut away and the sharp corner which has been a menace to motorists has been obliterated. "Death Curve" is the title of the past. The curve was a menace to motorists who were passing it. The curve was a menace to motorists who were passing it. The curve was a menace to motorists who were passing it.

NEW PLACARDS ON SUBURBAN CARS

No More Missing Cars on the Corners Because Signs Are Indistinctive.

HAYWARD, Sept. 25.—In the future there will be no necessity for intending passengers on the San Leandro and Hayward street cars to strain their eyes to read the destination signs in front of the cars. Signs distinguishing the San Leandro and Hayward cars were installed yesterday. Formerly the metal signs on a short distance looked alike, and passengers were unable to tell whether a car was bound for San Leandro or Hayward until it was close up.

WOMEN'S CLUBS JOIN OAKLAND CIVIC COUNCIL

FRUITVALE, Sept. 25.—The Council of Women's Clubs East of Lake Merritt, at an enthusiastic meeting in the Hotel yesterday afternoon, decided to join the Oakland Civic Council. The majority of the women's improvement organizations in the lake communities, from Lake Merritt to Elmhurst are in the council, which is the strongest organization of its kind in this section of Oakland.

Dr. Carl Walliser gave an instructive talk on the reduction of taxation and the city budget. The meeting was held in the afternoon of September 25 in the Sunday school room of the Methodist Church. Officers will be elected for the coming year, following a short literary and musical program. President Mrs. S. M. M. Woodman will preside.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers and other dependent ills. Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective, laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination vegetable simple herbs with peppin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 431 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

YOU NEED THIS GREAT NERVE TONIC

For Over-Eating, Drinking, Smoking or Overwork of Any Kind Causing Nervousness.

TAKE AMBITION PILLS

Druggists are having a lively sale of Wendell's Ambition Pills these days because the people of Oakland who have tried them know that they tone up the entire system and impart vigor and energy into run down people in a few days and because they are guaranteed to do exactly as advertised, and all druggists are authorized by the maker to refund the purchase price if anyone is dissatisfied with the first box purchased.

Fick declared a holiday to enable all the children to enjoy the fair. Happy boys and girls dispersed themselves throughout the grounds, petting their favorite animals in the stock yards and swarmed around the carnival amusements. The fair grounds presented their gayest appearance today, and the sidewalks and the merry-go-round did their biggest and best. MARE ISLAND, Sept. 25.—Requests were received at Mare Island from the Bureau of Construction and Repair for estimates for the construction of the lighthouse tender No. 2. The bids are to be opened in Washington, D. C., on Monday, October 12. This means that the Mare Island estimates will have to reach their way to the estimating room as to get them ready to be sent to Washington on Tuesday, October 6. The Mare Island officials will be interested in most to land the contract, as the job would keep quite a force of men at work for several months next year in both the yard and the machine departments.

Public Works Department officers at Mare Island state that the Thompson Bridge Company will complete the repairs to the bridge at the Golden Gate in two weeks.

Cards were issued at Mare Island yesterday for contributors helpers and one frame tender for the hull department.

DANIELS CLOSES WIRELESS STATION

Marconi Company Declines to Assure United States of Neutrality.

By Associated Press.
NANTUCKET, Mass., Sept. 25.—The wireless station of the Marconi wireless telegraph company, which was closed yesterday because the company declined to assure the government that it would abide by navy neutrality regulations, suspended operations at 1 p. m. today. There were no formalities when the station was closed. English Nizan of the navy, who has been acting as censor, is expected to remain at Nantucket.

CAN U. S. BE ENJOINED?

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Whether or not a court case against the President of the United States was a question before Attorney General Gregory today, in connection with the government's closing of the Nantucket station of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company. The Marconi company yesterday threatened to apply for an injunction prohibiting Secretary Daniels from closing the station or censoring messages sent to Europe from it.

The attorney general's department considered such action would be in effect an injunction against the President. The administration officials believe the President, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, could close the station under the circumstances.

PROHIBIT AERIAL TRAFFIC.

LONDON, Sept. 25, 3:35 p. m.—In a despatch from Rome the correspondent of the Central News says the Italian authorities have issued a decree prohibiting all aerial navigation over Italian territory.

JAIL POLICEMAN; RESISTS ARREST

His Reckless Use of Weapons Means Probably His Dismissal.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 25.—Patrolman J. R. Clark, wearing star No. 317 and working out of police headquarters, was assigned this morning to the 23rd street police station, located at Twentieth street and Grand avenue.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning Sergeant J. R. McCall, who has charge of the parade squad in the district covered by the 23rd street police station, failed to find Patrolman Clark and began a search for him. The sergeant found Clark in a saloon at Twentieth street and Grand avenue, drinking with other men.

"Why did you desert your post?" Sergeant McCall questioned. "Who the devil wants to know?" answered the patrolman thickly.

Clark drew back his club as if to strike his superior officer. The club was snatched from him and McCall wrenched the club from Clark. "Come on to the station with me," McCall said. He called the police motor car and Clark was taken into the office of H. L. Goode, captain of the 23rd street police station.

"What's the matter with you?" asked the captain. "It's none of your business. I'm commissioned by the governor. I don't care for any captain."

He reached for his revolver. The weapon was snatched from him and the office came Sergeant McCall and J. M. McGlothlin, a patrolman.

Although Clark weighs about 275 pounds, he was no match for the other officers and after several minutes of wrestling the patrolman was disarmed. His star was then unplanned from his uniform.

"Lock him up," the captain ordered. A few moments later Clark occupied a cell in the holdover. He will be taken to police headquarters this afternoon to interview the chief. Dismissal from the department probably will follow.

Clark, who is 35 years old, lives at 3414 Thompson avenue. He was appointed patrolman May 1. The man formerly was a railroad switchman.

GET FIRST NEWS OF KRON PRINZ WILHELM

By Associated Press.
RIO JANEIRO, Sept. 25, via London, Sept. 25, 8:40 a. m.—The German steamer Prussia has arrived at Santos and landed the master and fifteen men of the British steamer Indian Prince, sunk by the German auxiliary cruiser Kron Prinz Wilhelm.

This is the first definite news of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, a North German Lloyd liner, since she was reported as having been sent transferring coal to the German cruiser Karlsruhe in West Indian waters. British cruisers came upon the transfer of coal was in progress and the Kron Prinz Wilhelm "took to her heels," while the Karlsruhe and the British warships engaged in a long-range running duel, which appears to have been without serious results.

The Kron Prinz Wilhelm sailed from New York ostensibly for Bremen on August 2. It was stated after her departure that she had on board provisions and a large store of coal which it was expected she would transfer to the German cruisers operating in American waters. The North German Lloyd Company, however, denied the report that the steamer carried war supplies.

Since her departure from New York the whereabouts of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm has been considerably of a mystery except in the one instance when the British cruisers say they had seen her unloading coal at sea.

The British steamer Indian Prince, a vessel of 1775 tons, sailed from Rio Janeiro on August 25 for Port of Spain and New York.

BACK YARD DISAPPEARS AS WOMAN FEEDS FOWLS

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 25.—As Mrs. John Puchock was walking into her back yard at Hickory Ridge to feed her chickens the ground trembled and most of the lot suddenly disappeared, caused by a cave-in over old mine workings. The woman saved herself by grasping a post.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger-tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

BRITISH ANSWER GERMAN CHARGES

Admit Shell Was Thrown Into Life Boat of Germans; Explain Circumstances.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25, 1 p. m.—The British Admiralty has issued a formal reply to the statement given publicly by the German minister at Copenhagen to the effect that British officers fired on drowning German sailors after the naval engagement off Heligoland, and that a British shell was thrown into a lifeboat containing German survivors of this fight.

The Admiralty admits the charge that the shell was thrown, but explains the circumstance as follows: "Every effort was made to save life until a German cruiser of the Stettin class appeared on the scene and opened a heavy fire on the British destroyers and the German minister at Copenhagen was forced to retire in order to avoid destruction. The Goshawk removed her men from her boat, leaving it to German prisoners, nearly all of whom were wounded. It is to be regretted that a bluejacket on the forecastle of the Goshawk, while endeavoring to assist the German survivors, threw a projectile which could not possibly under the circumstances have exploded, into this small boat, as it drifted past his ship."

CANNOT BE DEFENDED.

"This, no doubt, is the incident referred to by the German minister at Copenhagen. It cannot be defended, but it is not a matter of considerable importance, and it was surely a trivial offense compared to that of the German cruiser, which fired many shells at the boats of British destroyers while they were engaged in humane and chivalrous action."

Regarding the allegations that Germans fired at German sailors who were in the water, the admiralty says there are many British naval officers and men who actually saw officers of the German cruisers Mainz and Koensig Louise fire at their own men in the water, presumably because they thought the sailors were prematurely deserting their posts.

"There are many men in our hospitals," the admiralty continues, "whose wounds testify to the desecration of the German officers' fire. Out of 250 men saved from the Mainz about 150 were picked up swimming in the water. Many of them had been wounded by revolver bullets. The remaining 100 could not be picked up by a destroyer which laid alongside just before the Mainz went down."

PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR "CITY MANAGER" CHARTER

The proposal for a new city charter, embracing some of the principles of the "city manager plan" which has been informally discussed by civic organizations for some time past, will soon be made the object of a campaign, according to tentative plans now under way by the Alameda County Civic Association and the Tax Association. Members of both organizations met in the Chamber of Commerce last night for an informal discussion of the plan, which has for some time been under consideration at the hands of the Tax Association. The members decided to divide the city into districts and call for a campaign. Next week's meeting of the Civic Association will probably see the plan taken up in detail, and at this time committees will be named to outline the project.

The organizations plan to district the city and arrange meetings at which the proposed charter provisions are to be explained to the voters. The plan, according to the Tax Association members, will result in economy in taxation and public expense by avoiding duplication of work wherever possible.

AUTHORITIES MAY DEPORT CARSON

Chief of Police Peterson plans to deport George W. Carson, said to be a relative of Sir Edward Carson, the Irish leader of the Ulster uprising, on the ground that he is an undesirable alien, if this course can be carried out. Carson was arrested yesterday in the Bell Building, a building after threatening the life of Miss Anne Brown, a pretty stenographer, according to the police. When Carson was captured, it is alleged that he had grasped the young woman with one hand by the wrist, and was reaching with his right hand for a revolver he carried in his right pocket.

Carson was affianced to Miss Brown "on probation," according to the girl's statement, at her home, 681 Seventeenth street, today. She expressed pity for his plight.

"Mr. Carson seemed to be very excited," explained Miss Brown. "We all hoped he would make good, though. But lately he made threats against me and I was afraid that he might do me some injury."

REACHED FOR POCKET.

"Yesterday he came to the office of the Realty Syndicate. Mr. Singleton, who had heard of his threats against me, had been following him. I went out into the corridor to tell him not to come there that way, that he might cause me to lose my position. He grasped me by the wrist and started to reach for his back pocket, where he carried a revolver. Then Mr. Singleton jumped from behind and held him till the police came."

"I feel sorry for him now, and I hope the police will not abuse him and mistreat him. You cannot blame them if they get calloused in their work, but I do not think Mr. Carson is in his right mind, and it would not be right to mistreat him."

"I told him that he was not making enough for us to get married, and that if he would work hard and better his education and prove that he was worthy of a home I would consider his suit. I feel sorry for him."

"JUST LOVE," HE SAYS.

"It was just love," Carson told Chief Peterson. Carson left with two inspectors, Gallagher and Green, but put him through a sharp cross-questioning.

Chief Peterson explained today that prior to the arrest of Carson yesterday he had summoned Carson to his office and had warned the young Irishman to behave himself. Carson left the office, but obtained a .38 calibre revolver and went to Miss Brown's office.

Chief Peterson stated that there is sufficient evidence upon which to base a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, but that he has taken the matter up with Immigration Officer Jack Robinson as to whether it will not be possible to deport him as an undesirable alien. Carson's past history will be investigated and every effort will be made to have the case transferred to the Federal Immigration authorities.

Rule Threatens to Make Warship "Dry"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—It became known here today that an issue involving the enforcement of Secretary Daniels' anti-drum regulation had been raised and settled to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. A big beer wagon was driven up to the entrance of the Boston navy yard with many officers assigned to the Argentine battleship Rivadavia. The officer in command refused to admit the cargo and reported the incident to Secretary Daniels, who approved his action. Later, however, according to unofficial sources, a boat carried the beer out to the Rivadavia.

ROMANCE BLASTED Divorce Is End of Runaway Match

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Estelle Johnson Ryan, beautiful young daughter of Benjamin Johnson, prominent and wealthy Los Angeles merchant, whose runaway marriage to Terence E. Ryan, son of a Chicago lawyer, attracted wide attention here and in the San Francisco bay cities, was successful in her plea for a divorce here.

New evidence against the youthful husband, in which a correspondent was named, was given in court and Ryan did not appear to defend himself.

Judge Monroe, after hearing the statements of witnesses, scored the deformed young man severely and said that he was "certainly not the evidence and that a decree will be signed as soon as proof is made that Ryan had official notice of the new charges."

But three witnesses took the stand. They were Samuel Haley, proprietor of the Haley hotel at Venice; H. F. Harding, a private detective, and In-gall W. Bull, Mrs. Ryan's attorney. An attorney representing Ryan was in the courtroom before the trial began, but departed, saying he had no interest in the proceedings.

DETECTIVE ON STAND.
H. F. Harding, the private detective, said: "I saw Ryan at Venice in company with a young woman whose name I could not learn on September 17. I later observed the name of 'Henry W. Perry' on the register of the Haley hotel. I recognized it as Ryan's handwriting. I called Bull and we surprised Ryan and his companion Ryan exclaimed when he saw us, 'Well, you've got me now. I didn't think you were smart enough.'"

The detective gave a description of the room and was corroborated by Attorney Bull.

"I am not surprised that this should happen," Judge Monroe said. The correspondent was spoken of throughout the trial as Jane Doe, the fictitious name applied in the law to unidentified women.

GRIMES TAUGHT BY OTHER LADS

Nine-Year-Old Delinquent Decried Better Off Away From Mother.

"The other boys taught me" was the excuse of a youngster at the juvenile court this morning. His mother sat close by, watching him sullenly. Sometimes the boy returned the look and a sort of bewilderment in his big eyes. She said she could not speak English, but had brought a friend to interpret for her.

"Where is the father?" asked the judge.

There was a flood of Italian.

"He was busy today, and couldn't come."

The judge turned to the child. "So you've been stealing. You stole from your teacher at school, from the stores, even from a bootblack on the street. Don't you know that you'll end up in the penitentiary if you go on in this way? What's going to become of you?"

The boy did not answer; he snuffed a little, and looked at his mother.

She did not return the glance, sitting stolidly in her place, but her eyes followed the judge with curious questioning.

When the judge started up with a sudden gesture; then, as trying to control an irresistible impulse, sank back again in the seat.

The judge looked at her sharply. "Are you sure she doesn't understand English?"

The probation officer shrugged his shoulders. "Not when she doesn't want to, otherwise I wouldn't be surprised if she put him up to the whole business."

The woman made no sign; the boy was wringing nervously in his chair.

"Well, he can't go on any longer like this," said the judge. "She either can't or will not look after him. We will have to take him away from her. Tell her so, and ask if she has anything to say."

There was another volley of Italian.

"She don't know anything about it," was the only answer she would give.

"Well, six months in the reform school for the boy; we must keep him away from her as far as we can, and perhaps it will teach him a lesson."

He is just nine years old.

Boy Boasts to Judge and Gets Day in Jail

BERKELEY, Sept. 25.—Speeding fifty miles an hour along College avenue, and subsequently shouting epithets at the policeman who arrested him, earned William Menzel, a 19-year-old student at White's preparatory school, six days in jail when he appeared before Judge Edgar this morning.

"I guess that is about as fast as you can go," commented Judge Edgar.

"Oh, no; I made fifty-six miles on the Oakland boulevard one day," Menzel replied, "and got fined $35 for it."

"Maybe that's your limit," suggested Judge Edgar.

"No it isn't," Menzel replied; "one time down at Palo Alto I made sixty-eight miles an hour."

That was enough for the judge, who pronounced the sentence against him of one day in jail for speeding and five days for disturbing the peace.

Menzel is the son of Mrs. Menzel of 2945 Ashby avenue. An effort is being made by the local police to secure from the state a revocation of his license.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR SUMMONED BY DEATH

John La Blane, Civil war veteran and one of the pioneers in the California oil industry, died yesterday afternoon at the family residence, at Tenth and Jackson streets.

As a member of the famous One Hundred and Eighteenth Massachusetts Regiment, he served his country from 1851 to 1855 with conspicuous gallantry, taking part in many of the most notable engagements and being twice severely wounded. He came to California in 1871 and resided for some years in Fresno, where he took great interest in political affairs, coming later to Oakland. He was among the first developers of the Coalina oil fields and made a large fortune in that business.

He leaves a widow, a son, Thomas La Blane, of Chicago, a daughter, Mrs. Carrie Barbes, of San Francisco, and five step-children.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral services, which will be in charge of Lyon Post, G. A. R., and notice of which will be duly published.

KILLED BY SLIDE.

MAGALLA, Sept. 25.—A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury after an investigation into the death of John P. Anderson, a miner in the Mineral Slide gold mine, near here. Anderson was instantly killed by a slide of rock. He was working in a sloping position, firing a fuse for a blast in a raise, when a block of rock broke loose from the side of the raise and crushed his head against the other side.

SOCIETY DIVORCE MAY DISBAR HIM

Former Wife of William Guggenheim Proceeds Here Against L. Woerner.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—One of the most sensational cases of attempted dishonor involving as it does the name of Mrs. Grace Herbert Guggenheim, wife of the late William Guggenheim, youngest of the multi-millionaire Guggenheim brothers of New York, and Louis Woerner, attorney of nation-wide prominence, has been transferred from the metropolis to San Francisco. This morning a legal fight was begun to prevent the taking of testimony against Woerner in this city and a subpoena duces tecum is in the background of the case and is responsible for the determined efforts of the principals to prevent a local exposure.

Mrs. Wahl is now staying at the Palace Hotel and armed with a list of questions with which to interrogate her, Christine arrived here several days ago and is at the St. Francis hotel. Immediately Mrs. Wahl retained Attorneys Hagerty and Kahane to intervene to restrain Christine from questioning her before a notary in the Pacific building. Attorney Ach was similarly retained by Woerner. All three lawyers appeared before Superior Judge Starvatt this morning to argue the case.

Several of Oakland's most popular clubs contributed the talent for the evening, among the most prominent being the Le Tres Joli, Acorn, Y. M. C. Y. W. C. and Samsonian clubs.

BULGING SUIT CASES HELD DRUGS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Carrying two suitcases bulging with cocaine and morphine valued at more than $200, George W. Muro, a Japanese porter, employed at the Belvedere Hotel, was caught on his arrival here on the Tonopah Express from Reno at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The capture was the result of weeks of detective work on the part of Special Officer William White of the State Board of Pharmacy, a brother of Chief of Police White who had secret information of the conspiracy to bring the drug here in wholesale quantity.

Muro, who was charged with violating the state poison law, would make no statement, demanding to see his employer, George Patterson, proprietor of the Belvedere, who, with his wife, has on a previous occasion been arrested for a similar offense.

Muro was sent from San Francisco on Wednesday leaving on the 7 p. m. train. He went to Reno carrying his two suitcases, then empty. They were quickly filled at a store in the Nevada metropolis and he took the next train back. As he was walking off the boat on this side, Corporal Nolan and Officer White took him into custody.

The police say that the morphine and cocaine found have been having difficulty lately in supplying their wants and that a plot was hatched to procure large supplies from Reno. Nevada has always been a source of the wholesale distribution of drugs in violation of the law, but no attempts have lately been made to bring morphine from there. Only the scarcity of the local market where the drug users and the "top heads" have been in the habit of supplying their wants, have led the leaders in contraband to take desperate measures. It is evident that the schemers believed no suspicion would fall on a Japanese and it was doing wrong in accepting the mission entrusted to him.

The State Pharmacy authorities regard the capture as exceedingly important and investigation into the activity of the ring is being vigorously prosecuted.

Oakland Heiress to Wed S. F. Physician

The engagement of Miss Alma Kahn, daughter of the late Henry Kahn of Oakland, to Dr. Rene Bine Kahn of San Francisco, has been announced. The wedding will be a brilliant affair at California Hall, in San Francisco, on October 4. Several hundred guests will be present, many of them from Oakland, where the bride's family has been prominent for years.

Miss Kahn is a graceful, charming girl, who has spent much time abroad. With her mother, Mrs. Lillian Kahn, she traveled for several years after her father's death. Since their return from Europe, Mrs. Kahn and her daughter have made their home with an elder daughter, Mrs. David Eisenbach, of San Francisco. Miss Kahn is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kahn and Mrs. Sol Kahn of Oakland, and she is one of the heirs to the large Kahn fortune, rated at several millions.

PROMISE IMMUNITY He Must Turn State's Evidence

That arrangements had been made to take the witness stand in behalf of the police to grant immunity to Archie Latimer, charged with arson, if he would turn state's evidence against his two friends, Elmer Luty and Fred Vierra, who are under arrest on similar charges, was alleged today when a continuance was asked by attorneys for the defendants before Judge Mortimer Smith. It is believed that the delay will give the attorneys time to block the plan.

It was recognized by the police that the evidence against the boys Luty and Vierra was weak and that there was little chance of convicting Latimer under any circumstances. But the young man had been in trouble with the police before and was not to be trusted.

It is alleged that with a combination threat that other charges might be placed against him if he did not carry out the plan and that he would undoubtedly be freed if he did, Latimer promised that he would turn against his companions.

Oakland Clubwoman Weds Capt. Adam Paul

Society and club circles will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Mrs. J. T. Carothers, member of the Ebell Club and former a director of the Fabiola Hospital, to Captain Adam W. Paul, U. S. A. retired.

An interesting detail of the marriage is that the bride and groom were engaged many years ago in their early youth, and the engagement was broken. The bride married and was widowed a number of years ago.

Recently the old friendship was renewed and the couple decided to renew also their romance.

The marriage took place quietly in the First Unitarian Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. William J. Simonds officiating. There were but three guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Hildebrandt and Mrs. Gerald, old friends of the bride.

Captain and Mrs. Paul will be at home after October 1 at 2109 Stuart street, Berkeley.

Since his retirement from the army Captain Paul has made his home in Oregon, where he has extensive mining interests, but came to Oakland a few weeks ago.

WOULD UNMUZZLE DOGS. An ordinance repealing the dog muzzling ordinance passed many months ago, was introduced at the meeting of the city council last night by Commissioner of Streets W. J. Bacon. Bacon explained that there is no indication that there is any disease prevalent among the dogs in this city, and that the law demanding that dogs shall be muzzled works an unnecessary hardship. The ordinance repealing the muzzling law was referred to Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner, who introduced and forced the passage of the original ordinance. Turner will confer with Dr. A. F. Gillman, city health director, before presenting his report on Bacon's plan to permit dogs to go unmuzzled.

VIEW HARBOR PLANS. The city of Alameda has perfected plans for the improvement of the wharves and waterfront along the south side of the estuary, and these plans contemplate taking advantage to the full of the grant made by the state to the city of Alameda of the submerged lands.

These plans were discussed at the meeting of the city council last night by the members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, called by Chairman W. E. Gibson. The members of the committee present were Chairman Gibson, A. Jonas, H. C. Capwell, W. M. Keith, from Alameda; Mayor Frank Otis, Edward J. Silver, Samuel Siskely, and C. G. Adams.

DOCKWEILER IS OPPOSED. Protest against the continuance of the contract with Consulting Engineer J. H. Dockweiler for his re-employment as water rate expert was filed with the city council today by the Galindo Improvement Association. An ordinance has been introduced appropriating $4000 as his compensation for the coming year, but this is being held up pending discussion of the situation.

AMENDMENTS DISCUSSED. Three proposed amendments to the constitution were discussed at Franklin school last night. Dr. T. B. Holmes of the Public Welfare League presided. The Redlight Abatement measure was presented by Miss Gail Laughlin, of San Francisco. The "Dry" amendment was presented by Earl G. Winsley of Mills College. Harold Everett made a plea for the eight-hour law.

VIVID SKETCHES MODERN WARFARE

Chaplain With British Regiments Tells of Conduct of Soldiers.

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A tale of warfare from the British camp in France vivid with description of the way the English forces faced death on the battlefield, of the jokes they cracked and the prayer they said with the bullets sweeping the trenches, is being brought to New York by the Rev. James Moller, a native of Trenton, N. J., who served as chaplain for several weeks with one of the British regiments in France and returned home today on the Mauretania.

"In a modern battle there is an overpowering sense of unreality," he said. "The business of seeing men kill each other seems mechanical because of the preponderance of the machine element in the affair; the human element simply continues in their perfection of slaughter."

"The business of the English and Irish soldiers in the trenches was surprising. There those men stood behind shoulder-high mounds of dirt, facing level sprays of death in front, yet cracking jokes and singing snatches of music hall ballads between volleys. Stupefiedly brave, they called it, and from cover they poured the fire of the terrible German guns and with comrades dropping all about them built up a roaring 'It's a Long Road to Tipperary'."

"As if they were in the barracks. Sometimes I'd hear a big Irishman yell out to a neighbor in the trenches, 'Well, you know that Dutchman all right? The business of killing, with them, seemed personal and to partake somewhat of the nature of a quarrel.'"

RECKLESSNESS OF GUNNERS. "But how the Germans did pound that British line at Mons! They came on and on, and from cover they poured the fire. The German commanders threw their men into the face of the British fire with reckless recklessness, counting the best weight of numbers to overwhelm them."

"To see those German lines move forward, clad in gas, was like watching regiments of top soldiers pushing across a table. You'd see a long row of pale blue bluffs, topped with spiked helmets, and from cover they'd come rushing at you. Then a British gun at your elbow would speak, a shell would burst in the midst of that blue block, and a cloud of smoke and soft and the block would be gone. Nothing left but a few men madly running back through the German shells are terrible. I have seen one shell enter a little hill and there explode, carrying away a whole company of British wiped out by the explosion of a single shell."

"MARRY ME OR I'LL SHOOT" WOMAN RUNS. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 25.—Tim Temposky, grocery clerk, lover, 21 years old, died in a gorgeous room at the Southern, 1507 East Fortieth street. For the fortieth time he proposed marriage and was refused.

"I'm too young," she said; wait awhile," said the girl who is 27.

"Well," sighed Tim, "let's wait." They walked. Then they rode. On the street cars. Presently they stopped at Grove Park. Moonlight, tree-lined walks, witchery and wizardry of night.

Tim was refused. Then from a pocket he extracted a revolver, which he pressed against the girl.

"No one else will have you," he said, thickly.

"Don't, Tim, don't," she pleaded.

"Then I'll kill myself," said Tim, placing the weapon to his forehead.

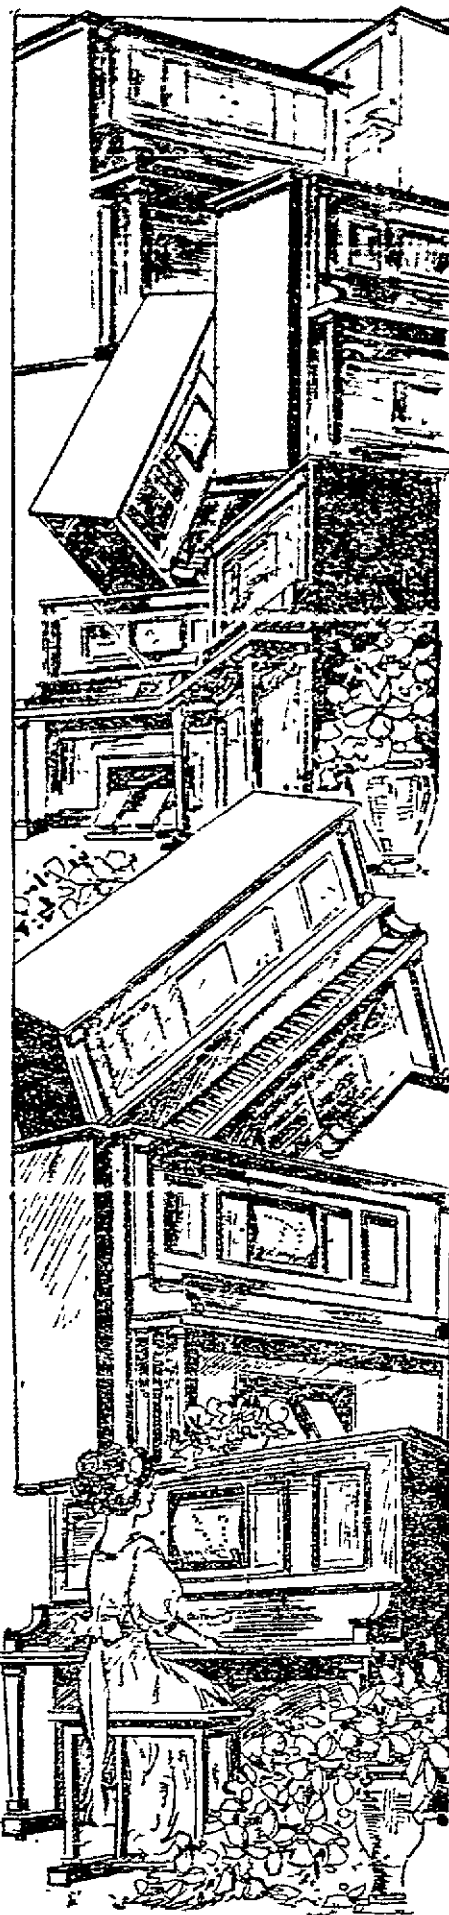

But he neglected the main thing necessary to carry out that project—he failed to pull the trigger. Miss Southern fled shrieking to the shelter house, where she found a policeman. Tim was discovered, arrested and taken to the Walnut Street Police Station.

In the South Side Court Miss Southern told her story. Tim Temposky admitted it was true.

"You're in love," he said in defense.

"You'll be in jail," said Judge Welch in conclusion. And fined Tim $100.

Rescue Silk Scarf Wafted by Breezes

After a chase of several blocks, in which House Detective Carter of the Hotel Oakland and several waiters and bellboys joined, the hotel attaches this morning rescued a valuable silk scarf, the property of a traveling salesman, which had dropped from a window of a sample room and was picked up by a passerby. The scarf, valued at several hundred dollars, had been placed in the window and was blown out by a breeze.

Two waiters in the grill room saw it fall and started out to get it. In the meantime a stranger, passing by, picked it up and started down Harrison street, when the waiters, summoning the detective, gave chase. The man surrendered the scarf on seeing the detective's star. No arrests were made.

PAINTS IN HOTEL. After waiting several hours in the lobby of the Hotel Oakland, Mrs. J. Gladding of this city created considerable excitement when she fainted on the hotel veranda. Fallboys and hotel attaches came to her rescue and restoratives were applied. Mrs. Gladding is a third cousin of De Wolf Hopper.

Bride Divorces Her Wealthy Lochinvar

Pretty Edelmira Diaz, who last May climbed through a high window of the county clerk's office at midnight to obtain a license to marry Ed McGuinn, a wealthy Wagoning rancher, and then left him after three days, has obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce in San Francisco. She asked for no alimony and received none. As plaintiff in the action she was permitted to resume her maiden name and is now living with her parents, who had strenuously opposed the marriage.

The husband, who sought to have his young bride return to the Wagoning ranches with him following the brief honeymoon, was forced to go back home alone. A short time afterward the bride filed suit for divorce.

The couple were married by Justice James Quinn the night the marriage license was taken out. But their happiness was short-lived.

Sunday Plan.

BERKELEY, Sept. 25. — Special services to commemorate the anniversary of the church, including the formal installation of the pastor and the dedication of the edifice, have been planned Sunday morning and afternoon at St. Michael's Evangelical Lutheran church. It is expected the exercises will be attended by a large number of visitors from other congregations about the bay.

The service at 11 a. m. will be the installation of the pastor of the congregation. The address to the pastor will be given by the Rev. J. Allen Leas of James' Lutheran church, Portland, Oregon, and representative of the board of English home missions of the Lutheran church of the general council in America. The address to the congregation will be given by the Rev. Emil Meyer pastor of Bethel Lutheran church of San Jose.

A splendid program has been prepared. The vested choir will sing "Hear Thy Our Prayer" by Morrison for the tenor and "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers" by Mendelssohn for the alto. The service of dedication or consecration of the church will take place a special service in the afternoon at 3 o'clock at which time a number of neighboring pastors will be in attendance to extend greetings. The dedicatory address will be given by the Rev.

There will be no vesper service. Luther league this Sunday. On Tuesday evening from 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. St. Michael's guild will give an informal reception to the members and friends of the congregation. The annual business meeting and election will also be held.

The committee has also stated that a surprise is in store for all those attending, but they will not go into details on the matter and only say that the surprise is a real one and something to wait for. Commodore Carl Strom advised the attending persons to come prepared to eat, and dressed in old clothes, for it is not to be a dress affair—just an unfashioned stag party.

From there the party will go at 6 to Hunter's Point, where the good time will commence. There will be no stop for the festivities of the day and everyone assured of a good time and plenty to eat as Carl Strom is a cook of note and will dish up a "feed" fit for any one to eat and the said Carl is also a "bear" who it comes to either cooking oysters or eating them.

COMMERCIAL CLUB CAMPAIGN TO END

Membership Crusade Aided by Additional Volunteers Until Tomorrow Night.

More volunteers are working today for the Commercial Club in its big campaign for membership than has been the case in any single day since the campaign of the club started. The campaign will end tomorrow night, and to cover the city throughly, personally asking every business and professional man to join the club, means a large amount of work, even with the number of volunteers now at hand.

Managing Director Joseph E. Caine, at a luncheon to the club members Wednesday, explained that the time was short to do all that had to be done, and asked for 30 volunteers to solicit memberships. Fifty business men responded, and most of them appeared for work yesterday at the club's temporary headquarters at 1233 Broadway.

The result was apparent at once. Each was given a list of "prospects" and left, and soon began coming into the office again with many signed applications. By the close of the day more single memberships had been signed up than on any one day of the campaign heretofore.

Today and tomorrow, Caine declares, will be the banner days of the campaign. As the campaign closes tomorrow night, special efforts will be made by every worker to get every name possible on the club roster.

Members of the committee appointed by President Harmon Bell to see the heads of all big firms and corporations and get them to take blocks of memberships for distribution among their employees, also will have a busy two days. It is not expected that this committee will complete its work by tomorrow night, but it is hoped it will be far enough advanced with it to give a definite statement of how many city blocks may be counted upon, in addition to those already announced.

TEST TOBACCO FOR U. S. NAVY

Secretary Daniels to Permit Desirable Brands' Sale on Ships.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Navy Department officials today were congratulating themselves over the settlement of the question of tobacco in the navy, after the long and arduous campaign for some time and had caused much discussion and speculation. According to announcement by Secretary Daniels, all apparently desirable brands will be admitted for sale in the ship store at the rate of $1.00 per pound, and at an equal footing of fair and fair competition with one another.

The chemist at the Brooklyn yard will analyze all samples submitted, after which the department will enter into contract for furnishing quantities as may be required of each brand found to conform to the necessary standard of purity.

SENATOR BORAH ATTACKS ALASKA LEASING BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Senator Borah of Idaho attacked the Alaska coal and leasing bill in the Senate yesterday, declaring it had been demonstrated that the leasing system "never operated to the advantage of the consumer."

"If the people of the Pacific Coast, who are to use Alaskan coal, are still to be at the mercy of the lessees as to price," he said, "the leasing system is a failure. It is a system, such a system, universally condemned wherever it has been tried."

Senator Poindexter earnestly advocated the bill, maintaining that it would operate to the advantage of the public and the government and prevent monopolization of the resources of Alaska. He proposed to amend it, however, to provide that wages paid labor employed in mining operations on leased lands shall not be less than the average paid by the other employers, to prohibit the employment of persons under the age of 16, and to authorize the President to make all general rules and regulations to insure safety of operations.

OREGON MILITIA MAY CLOSE UP ROADHOUSE

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 25.—Unless immediate steps are taken by the authorities at Milwaukee, Governor West will close up the Broadway roadhouse there, and take out its doors and windows with the aid of the militia, according to a statement issued from the Governor's office today.

The executive said he has engaged private detectives to gather evidence against the roadhouse, and bases his action on reports that the hotel has been selling liquor after hours to girls.

"I have been paying money out of my own pocket to get evidence against this place," said the executive, "and I have evidence of law violation in my possession. If the city authorities do not get busy, I will take steps myself to put this place out of business. I will send a detachment of the militia and have the windows and doors broken out of the place. That ought to give the place a good cooling off."

BROADWAY THEATER TO SHOW "SAPHO" ON SCREEN

Florence Roberts, the well known star of the dramatic stage, will be at the Broadway Theater Friday and Saturday in Alphonse Daudet's play and novel, Sapho, a masterpiece in six reels.

There are some things in the story that are unpleasant, but not more so than life itself. Sapho is true to life—there can be little question as to that. And in her story there is both lesson and warning to every "good" wife against taking her established position from start to finish. There is no dullness. It is food for thought, along many lines, and for those who have neither read the book nor seen the dramatization, there is something in store as it is a grand picture.

PROHIBITION STREET MEETING

The prohibitionists have engaged the northeast corner of Tenth and Broadway for street speaking purposes until after the election. Tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30, H. E. Volcott, prohibition candidate for Congress in this district, S. P. Meads and others will speak. Prohibitionists are rejoicing over the great victory in old Virginia, which adds the tenth state to the prohibition column by a vote of about two to one.

TELL SECRET AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

A. L. Cunningham, Jr., and Miss Ruth Logan Announce Engagement.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Cunningham gave a dinner at the Hotel Oakland last evening in honor of the 21st birthday of their son, A. L. Cunningham Jr., and as a surprise to his parents, the guest of honor, announced his engagement to Miss Ruth Logan, who was present at the dinner, making the fourth in the informal party.

The announcement was made when guests found their places at the table, which was decorated with a broad centerpiece of pink roses. An envelope at each place held betrothal cards, cut to represent engagement rings. It was a happy surprise to Dr. and Mrs. Cunningham, who had not guessed the engagement of the young people. Both are students at the University of California.

A. L. Cunningham Jr. is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. Cunningham, who have been prominent in Oakland for many years. He is specializing in banking at the university and will enter business in this city on his graduation. Miss Logan is one of the most attractive girls at college. Her home is in Los Angeles, but with her mother, Mrs. M. H. Logan, she is living in Berkeley during her college course, the family residence being in Channing Way.

WILL HEAR ADVOCATES OF SITES FOR LIBRARY

There will be a special meeting of the board of directors of the Oakland Free Library at the Oakland Public Museum, 1426 Oak street, on Friday, October 2, at 8 p. m., sharp, to hear the advocates of special sites or districts for the branch library buildings donated to the city by the Carnegie Corporation. The representatives of each proposed district will be allowed twenty minutes to present their claims.

CHARGE AND COUNTER CHARGE. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—William McGill of the Hayward Hotel, 227 O'Farrell street, visited Miss Belle Hunter of 408 Ellis street, and claims that the woman stole $125 from him this morning. On making the charge against her, Miss Hunter said McGill struck her in anger. The woman was charged with grand larceny and McGill with battery.

CASCARETS FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, SOUR STOMACH, COLIC OR HEADACHE

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feelings of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is sour—your liver is torpid—your bowels constipated. It isn't your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation. Try Cascarets; they sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble, headache, bad cold and all such misery ends.

WILL LECTURE ON GIANT REDWOODS AT MUSEUM

Lovers of the redwoods may have the pleasure of listening to a talk by a friend of the giant trees at a meeting of the California Botanical Society to be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Oakland Public Museum. Prof. C. B. Bradley of the University of California will give some reminiscences of the years spent by himself in studying the life and habits and the past history of the redwoods of the bay region.

The California Botanical Society is a young organization devoted to the study of plant life in general and of the flora of California in particular. Members of the society will take an active part in the movement for conservation of natural park areas in various parts of the state, and in the protection of the lovely and delicate flowers that are rapidly approaching extinction before the advance of our material civilization. The president, Dr. W. L. Jepson of the University, is well known

WERE BORN HERE, BUT LACK OFFICIAL PROOF

OROVILLE, Sept. 25.—Consular attention as well as the attention of the Butte county officials, has been directed to the birth of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Vassila Stephanou, Italian residents of Stilling City.

The family desires to take a trip to Italy with the intention of returning here. Because no physician was summoned at the birth of the children there is no birth certificate on file and as a result there is no method at present of proving that they are American citizens, although they wear all born at Stilling City.

The Italian consul at San Francisco has been consulted in the matter, as has County Clerk Charles Beiling. Some manner of proving the nationality of the children is now being devised.

ROOSEVELT MAKES CAMPAIGN SPEECH

Addresses Audience in Behalf of Raymond Robins, Candidate for U. S. Senate.

MARION, Ill., Sept. 25.—Addressing an audience here today, the second and last of his Illinois campaign in behalf of Raymond Robins, Progressive candidate for United States Senator, Colonel Roosevelt outlined the features of the Progressive platform, and paid particular attention to the advocacy of the initiative, referendum and recall.

Speaking of business conditions, he repeated that unbridled competition means monopoly. The efficiency of industrial combination must be retained, he said, but their evils must be eliminated in a manner fair to all. "Unbridled competition is the father of monopoly," he asserted, illustrating the relations of the government to business with a reference to a newspaper article he had read.

GOVERNMENT MUST ENCOURAGE

"It started," said he, "that it would be no use for American business men to go into the business undertakings for the moment abandoned by the Germans because of the war. The government must assume an attitude of hearty encouragement and co-operation as far as all legitimate business, big or little, is concerned. But it must accompany this attitude with rigid insistence upon the rights of the wage worker for his full share in the benefit that comes from successful business."

REFERENDUM AND RECALL

He continued: "We Progressives are trying to give to the plain men and plain women of the nation the power to run their own government. That is why we are trying to secure the initiative, referendum and the recall."

"It is idle to say this is an assault on representative government. On the contrary, it represents an effort to make government really represent you; then you will never have to use the initiative, referendum and the recall. In such case there can be no possible objections to any standpoint to placing these measures on the statute books. They will only recall a misrepresentation."

NOT SO STRANGE AFTER ALL. People are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. C., writes, "Nothing did me the most good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." For sale by Geo. G. Bros. Drug Store.
